Teacher Contract Pact Reached by Negotiators

Agreement Now Up to Teachers

Release of Specific Terms Await Final Ratification

By HENRY CANTIN
ANP Staff Writer

ROMULUS—A tentative agreement on a new 1969-70 teacher employment contract has been reached, Robert L. McConeghy, school superintendent of the Romulus Community Schools, reported Monday, Labor Day.

The tentative agreement made by negotiating teams was reached after 22 hours of continuous sessions beginning Saturday and ending Sunday night at 8:30 p.m.

The specific terms of the master agreement for the new school year were not released pending ratification by the school system's 250 teachers and by the Board of Education.

LAST WEEK contract negotiations reached a deadlock when the final offer of the School Board was rejected by the teachers. Both parties agreed to fact finding.

The Romulus Education Association had appealed to the State Labor Mediation Board for a state fact finding hearing. The school board consented.

During the weekend Hearing Officer George T. Roumell, Jr., entered the negotiations.

This was the first time in teacher contract sessions with the School Board that parties have gone to fact finding, it was reported.

NEGOTIATORS REACHED an agreement Sunday night after both sides made concessions, McConeghy reported.

The school teachers scheduled a meeting at the Romulus Progressive Hall for the purpose of ratifying the agreement. If the teachers ratified then the new contract will be presented to the School Board for its final approval.

An early holiday press scheduled has prevented us from reporting action at the teacher's meeting. We will print whatever action is taken along with contract terms if they are available in next week's edition.

Pre-Employment Program is Offered

ROMULUS—A Pre-Employment Training Program under the supervision of the Chrysler Corporation's Trenton Engine Plant will be initiated if sufficient number of eligible persons are located in the Downriver and Out-County Area, it was announced.

The Family and Neighborhood Services, 37064 Goddard Road, have been officially notified of the program and asked for referrals, Jason P. Lovette, reported.

Men who are 18 years of age and older and persons whose incomes are within the guidelines of a family of one with a maximum income of $1,600 to a family of 13 with a maximum income of $7,800 are eligible.

The training program is a six-week training program with three weeks in a classroom and three weeks within the plant. Take home pay will be $80 weekly (40-hour week) while in training. The program needs at least 400 men to begin, said Alton M. Shelly, area supervisor.

Persons interested should call Family and Neighborhood Services, Phone 941-9590, or 897-7777 Monday through Saturday.

THE CAUSE OF IT ALL—A left front tire blow-out caused a 40-foot-long tractor and trailer carrying rolled steel veered to the left into the median of I-94 Expressway at the Wayne Road exit and overturned. Truck driver Samule Glen Hartsock, 36, of Wayne, was traveling eastbound. He was thrown from his cab. He was taken to the Wayne County General Hospital in a serious condition and admitted. Carla Hay, age 13, was named Reserve Western Champion in the Horse project, with her 3/4 Arab "Marzed." She earned a total of 50 points, as compared to 54 points earned by the champion.

Several of the members' exhibits were selected to be shown at State 4-H Show in East Lansing, August 19-22; James Morris, conservation and safety; Franklyn Flock, leathercraft; Thomas Madej, conservation.

AN EMERGENCY preparedness demonstration by Marie Diepenhorst, 16, was a blue ribbon demonstration winner at county and was selected to be given at State Show. There she won first place and also a trip to be taken later this fall.

Two club members were named to the 8-member county horse team that competed at the State 4-H Horse Show: Carla Hay, 13, with "Marzed" and Franklyn Flock, 15, with "Tuffy T. McCue", quarter horse gelding. Both were named to this honor in 1968 as well.

The girls of the club and their leaders were awarded the top ribbon of merit for having the cleanest dorm area in the sleeping tent at the Wayne County Fair.

CARLA HAY was also named the top Junior model in Wayne County this past year, in competition at the Wayne County Dress Review. Junior models do not actually compete at State Show but attend various educational activities.

Seven members spent the week at State Show and sang with the State 4-H Chorus in the Thursday auditorium program: Flora Diepenhorst, Marie Diepenhorst, Rita Crandall, James Wagner, Fred Hay, James Morris, James Smith. Many parents and leaders attended.

The Romulus western Riders will enroll for the new 4-H Year after October 1, 1969.

School Board Asking Loan Bids

ROMULUS—Sealed bids for the purchase of $1,000,000 Tax Anticipation Notes are being requested by the Romulus Community School District.

Robert L. McConeghy, school superintendent, announced that bids will be received by the Board of Education, 11401 Olive Street, until 7:30 p.m., Sept. 15.

The Tax Anticipation

Notes, (carrying six per cent interest) are dated Sept. 15, 1969 and will mature on April 1, 1970.

The $1,000,000 loan is in anticipation of the 1969 operations tax which are due and payable Dec. 1, 1969, McConeghy said.

The school district in July, of this year received $300,000 state aid assistance for the operations of the schools.

Romulus Increases Its Police Force

ROMULUS—The addition of two recruit police officers to the present staff of the Romulus Police Department, was announced by Police Chief Jacob J. Koch.

The Township Board approved the appointments, Aug. 19, contingent upon them meeting all necessary requirements on the recommendation of the police chief. They are:

Jack D. Wilson, 23, of 12070 Elmview, a Romulus High School graduate. He was the second highest of a list of prospective applicants, Chief Koch reported.

The second officer is Richard K. Yeramian, 25, of 17344 Clairann, Melvindale, a former member of the Inkster Police Department.

The addition of these two men bring the police force to five men not including five auxiliary police officers.

It was reported also that Eugene Hadynick resigned from the Auxiliary Force for personal reasons. He is former township constable.

RE-ACTIVATE COMMUNITY FLAG POLE—Mrs. Hazelle Speiser, president of the Romulus Sunshine Club hands over to Leo M. Kalota, (right) second vice-president of Manufacturers National Bank and manager of the bank's Romulus Branch. Romulus Supervisor Roderick E. Smith looks on. The bank has announced that it will handle the maintenance and care of the flag pole originally set up by the club to honor servicemen. The club's membership has dwindled and the flag pole sort of fell into misuse. It is located on Goddard Road opposite the bank branch.

After Break-In

Helping Hand Thrift Shop Reports Offers of Help

ROMULUS—The public response to help following the report of a break-in and burglary at the Helping Hand Thrift Shop, center of charitable clothing programs for Romulus Township, has been "tremendous," Mrs. Florence Klein, volunteer director of the Thrift Shop, announced.

The thrift shop, located in the basement of the Old Cory School Building, 7335 Washington Street, was broken into during the Aug. 15 to 17 weekend.

Donated sewing machines were taken and the shop completely ransacked. Romulus police and Wayne County Sheriff detectives are investigating the break-in.

"The public response to help after the theft of our portable sewing machines has renewed our faith in people," said Mrs. Klein. "We have received the promise of many sewing machines. Some are in need of repair, others are in good condition, one is brand new," she added.

One couple called the Romulus Police Department after the burglary and left a good machine at the station for the thrift shop. And the Romulus Police as well as the Wayne County Sheriff's Road Patrol have received calls, offers of help from interested citizens, she reported.

"Due to the lack of phone facilities, (the thrift shop is operated by volunteer help and donations of clothing, etc.) it has come to our attention by several social workers, teachers and residents that by giving everything away free we were overlooking that segment of society that has been shamefully neglected," Mrs. Klein disclosed.

The thrift shop will continue to give away clothing free to those persons who are in need and who have a referral slip from the proper agencies, Mrs. Klein said.

The thrift is planning to hold rummage sales to assist in the operation of the shop's sewing projects.

Mrs. Klein announced that a rummage sale will be held this Friday and Saturday Sept. 5 and 6. From 9 to 1 p.m. on Friday and 9 a.m. to noon on Saturday at the Helping Hand Thrift Shop.

Donations will be gratefully accepted. Profits of such sales will be used to assist in a sewing program.

$2,100,000 PROJECT

Hospital Supply Firm To Build in Romulus

ROMULUS—An application for a building permit to construct a $2,100,000 hospital supply office and warehouse in Romulus Township was reported by Joseph V. Gallagher, manager of the Romulus Building Department.

The application and building plans were filed by American Hospital Supply Corporation, Chicago.

The office and warehouse is to be built on a 10-acre parcel of land, located at Middlebelt and Ecorse Roads, Gallagher said.

The corporation had originally purchased a land site on Ecorse Road between the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad and Huron River Drive but last week a change in site was made.

Plans submitted for inspection by the building department calls for the construction of a three-story structure 361 feet wide and with 556-foot depth.

Engineers of the proposed project are Nelson, Ostrom, Baskin, Berman & Associates. Associate architect is James N. Lindenberg.

NEW MEMBERS—The New Boston Rotary Club installed two new members Aug. 26, bringing the club's roster to 30. Left to right are Sven Ekman, past president, who conducted the installation; Troy Patterson, David Court, new members; and Edward Dulecki, Rotary president, who congratulated them into the club.

William Gouger Answers Homeowners' Charges

Editor's Note: William Gouger, Sumpter Township supervisor, whose removal from office is sought by the United Home Owners Association of Sumpter along with other members of the Township Board, refuses the Association's latest criticism and charges of his administrative operations and background in the following article.

I would like once again to answer charges and accusations made against me by the United Homeowners Association of Sumpter and some of its members.

Let's take Mr. Krajewski's statements first. I would like to explain the job I held with the Water Department for $5,200 per year. In the first place I am self-employed. I am a Cement and Excavating Contractor and I can take time off whenever I need to.

The Township officials are part time, but I think it is important to be able to give the time the job requires and not just the time when you don't have anything else to do.

I TOOK over the Water Department for the following reasons: Most people may not realize that the County of Wayne has pledged its full faith and credit behind the water bonds. Therefore the County has the right to levy on all Sumpter Township property UNLIMITED taxes to pay for these bonds. At the time some of the lines of one section were ready for taps and the people who had paid for their taps were impatiently waiting for their taps to be made, the other section was only partly constructed and the Contractor was working on another job in Monroe.

He had advertised for a man for his job and we got an applicant. He was a retired gentleman and was interested only in being boss. We needed much more and quickly. We discussed the matter at a Board meeting and I agreed to take complete charge of the Water Department until we could get it going and make other arrangements.

I agreed to take off from my other work whatever time was necessary to accomplish this. This is not the duty of the Clerk and since I would lose money from my work the Board agreed to pay me $5,200 per year. Which would be the same cost as hiring one office girl.

WE GOT an opinion from our attorney and the Michigan Township Association, both agreed. The courts had ruled on this type of job and it was legal. I took the next four months off from my job, and after that put in at least 40 hours per week on the Water Department. My wife also worked many hours without pay.

There was no Water Department, as such, set up at the time. It was no easy job to get the contractor to come back and finish the job because at the price he had bid the job, he claimed he was losing money.

I established the complete bookkeeping system, had them printed, established and equipped a Water Department office downstairs in the Township Hall, changed contractors to make tap-ins and got the tap-ins made. I also prepared and sent out all water bills and kept all records.

I purchased meters and all materials necessary to make the taps, prepared and sent to Wayne County and the City of Detroit all the required reports. I had some work done by other contractors and received full reimbursement from them. I received a letter from the Board various changes in the Water ordinance, one of which was a charge of $5 per trailer for debt service, payable by the trailer park owners. This was the only change involving money.

THE HOMEOWNER was to pay the $5 debt service. I thought it only fair that it also be paid for trailers. This one change brings in about $4,000 per year now. By mid-summer next year the water will be installed at the other two large trailer parks. Then it will bring in $16,000 per year. When the parks are filled to the limit of their property (which was zoned for trailer parks before we took office) this will bring in about $25,000 per year.

It might also be interesting to note that when a water system is complete and turned over to the Township there is not one cent of money to start operating with. We had to borrow money from the General Fund to start operating with. As I stated before, when we took office the Township was broke and in debt $9,000. The first year we paid off the $9,000 and have been operating within our income ever since.

If we had gotten the water program started and I hate to think what would have happened to the people's taxes. I was given the water department job because as a businessman I knew how to set it up and as a contractor I know water main construction. If a government isn't run in a business like manner, it will go broke like a business that is not run in a business like manner.

WHEN THE Water Department got on its feet and the taps were caught up, I resigned. I took this job for the good of the Township, not for my own personal gain because I lost more money from my business than I made from the Water Department. It is up to the people to decide if they got a good deal or not.

At the last Board meeting I brought up the fact that according to our trailer park ordinance, the Board was to establish fees for checking plans and inspection of trailer parks under new construction for expansion. We set the fee at $5 per site.

The next day I informed the trailer park owners who are expanding. (There are two) One agreed to bring in his plans and a check to Sumpter Township for $500 for his 100 sites. The other agreed to bring in his plans and $1,500 for his 300 site expansion. Mr. Hoffman is on the Board, yet he didn't bring this up. Why?

OF ALL property tax paid in Sumpter, only $19,000 goes for operation of the Township, so it's very important to have honest government so all monies go into the Township treasury. So the answer to Mr. Krajewski's question is, Yes, I have been very busy. I agree with Mr. Krajewski the purpose as stated in the Association charter is commendable, if it wasn't it would be no good as a front. It's too bad it isn't used for the purpose stated in the Charter.

The first time I ever saw Mr. Krajewski was at the Board meeting when the uproar over the non-existent dump proposal was brought up. He informed me he had moved to Sumpter from Romulus Township where he was quite a politician. After talking to some people in Romulus I am convinced he was and they seem very glad he moved out of Romulus. He asked me to appoint him Deputy Clerk - I refused.

I did not twist any words. I have never seen any of these petitions that are being circulated. I got my information from the newspapers. I assume it is right since the Association made such a great effort to give it to them. I also got the figure of $16,000 for Romulus rubbish pick-up from the Ypsilanti Press. It was not my figure.

I understand from the other newspaper they pay much more than that. I didn't bother to check because it doesn't matter. Ours is still $500 per month. The reason our audit shows $7,100 for last year is because we had an extra pickup for Clean Up Month. Actually the audit was from April 15, 1968 to March 31, 1969, and included the April payment of $550. This audit includes 12 months at $550, and the extra pick-up of $500. This is $7,100. If Mr. Krajewski can't understand audit he should ask someone who can.

I DIDN'T mean to confuse Mr. Krajewski by comparing $550 per month with $16,000 per year. But I do think he is under-estimating the rest of our citizens (or insulting their intelligence) I would be willing to bet they can multiply $550 by twelve. Actually, Sumpter is bigger than Romulus in area. There are more pick-ups, of course, but not that many.

I resigned only once. It was to be effective July 31, 1969. But Mr. Kozma resigned July 22, 1969 and I was appointed Supervisor. When I was sworn in, that automatically made the Clerk's position open. I suppose that is what they call resigning twice.

THE SAND ORDINANCE, by the way, was adopted before we took office. Mr. Krajewski states, I would have to admit my decision to change the sand ordinance was due to the formation of the UHOA. The change in the ordinance was adopted May 14, 1968, and as far as I can tell the UHOA was formed well over a year later. The first I heard of it was June, 1969.

I don't know if I should tell Mr. Krajewski NO, the formation of the UHOA had nothing to do with my decision or let him figure it out for himself.

No, Mr. Krajewski I don't call all people against me ridiculous, just the ones who are trying to tear down the Township for their own personal political gain. We have had enough of that already.

The Sumpter School District hurt the name of Sumpter very much. All the people need to pull and work together and build up the image of Sumpter. I am sorry if all Mr. Krajewski can see is dumps and holes.

If the UHOA was on the level it would also be recalling Mr. Hoffman. He voted the money the same as we did for the police. As a matter of fact he made a motion recently to raise the pay of all police and he would have to admit no public hearing on sand permits. If we are guilty of any charges he is just as guilty. It is because he is a member of the UHOA, of course, which further proves this farce.

As for Mr. Hoffman's charges, he claims the test for the police was discriminatory and a means of creating vacancies for political appointments. If this was true, then why is he the only one to leave the Police Department because of the test?

He states I offered him the job of Police Commissioner if he would stop associating with Elmer Parragli. This is a plain lie. What I actually told him was why I voted against him for Police Commissioner. I told him whoever I voted for would have to work for all the people in the Township and not just a small group.

Also, I can't vote for a man to run the Department who issues tickets to citizens while on duty for speeding, and then parks the police car and gets into his own private car and drives like a speed demon.

I WAS SURPRISED Mr. Hoffman doesn't know all Board meetings are open to the public. He says he feels all Board meetings should be open to the public, yet just recently he made the statement at an open Board meeting that he thought the Board should meet in private before the Board meetings, instead of arguing in public.

I wonder if he really knows what he wants? He claims one policeman was fired for giving his wife a ticket. This man would have been fired even if he had given her a Good Driving award. This is ONE reason the people elected us to get rid of this man and one more. He gave her the ticket after we were elected but before we took office, and we feel it was given because he knew he would be fired when we took office. We were carrying out a mandate from the people.

I hope this will show the people how ridiculous this group is. It is disgusting to work all your life to raise a good family and build a good reputation and then have this kind of people try to ruin it.

I would also like to say there is a lot of difference between a recall petition and a recall election.

This is my final discussion on this group. I am sure the citizens can see where a farce this association is. I intend to do a good job as Supervisor and I am sure they will try to take credit for everything I do, but I can assure you that my decisions will be my own and not because of this group.

Sincerely,
WILLIAM GOUGER

The truck, loaded with rolled sheets of steel, veered to the left into the median of the expressway and overturned. The driver was thrown completely from the tractor's cab. MEA Withdraws DEA Charter

EAST LANSING—In an extraordinary action last weekend, the board of directors of the 70,000-member Michigan Education Association withdrew the charter of a local unit, the Detroit Education Association.

The DEA has been on probation since November, 1967, and was sued last December for failure to remit dues monies owed to the Michigan Education Association and the National Education Association.

Recently, the current officers of the DEA have opposed the parent organization policy promoting the negotiation of an "agency shop" clause in each of its 519 local contracts.

AGENCY SHOP requires the payment of fees by non-members, to help support the expenses of representation of the employees' interests, when they are not interested in contributing time, effort, or membership support.

The unanimous action of the MEA board of directors cites "mismanagement of funds on the part of DEA, membership fees confiscated by DEA, failure of DEA to adhere to the provisions of its own constitution, failure to properly elect a member to the state board of directors, lack of communication and cooperation, and irresponsible and unfounded charges in the mass media regarding program and policies of the MEA and National Education Association."

ON HANDLING 747

Metro Airport Staff Assures Committee

Members of the Michigan House of Representatives Economic Development Committee were assured of Detroit Metropolitan Airport's capability of handling new jet planes before going to the West Coast for an airport tour and inspection of the giant Boeing 747.

Michael Berry, vice chairman of the Wayne County Road Commission which operates the airport, said he had been assured by his staff that the airport would be prepared to handle the 747, which can carry as many as 447 persons in an economy configuration.

THE GROUP, including Representatives George F. Montgomery, Detroit; Casmer P. Ogonowski, Detroit; James Tierney, Garden City; and Thomas J. Anderson, Southgate, was led by Committee Chairman E.D. O'Brien of Detroit.

Berry outlined airport expansion plans through 1985, and detailed plans for the $200 million expansion program were provided by the staff. Berry pointed to the huge economic impact the airport has had and will have on the future of south-eastern Michigan.

O'Brien said his group will visit Los Angeles, San Diego, San Francisco, and Seattle before returning Sept. 1.

Jerome Marcero Goes to Thailand

CARLETON—Airman Jerome M. Marcero, son of Mr. and Mrs. Miles C. Marcero of 2710 Labo Road, is on duty at Udorn Royal Thai AFB, Thailand.

Airman Marcero, a corrosion control specialist, is assigned to a unit of the Pacific Air Forces. Before his arrival in Thailand, he served at Sheppard AFB, Tex. The Airman, a 1967 graduate of Monroe (Mich.) Catholic Central High School, attended Monroe Community College.

A DEMONSTRATION—Miss Nancy Tillotson, 16, of Romulus, uses her sheep dog to aid in a demonstration she gave during activities at 4-H Youth State Show, Aug. 19-22, at Michigan State University. The state's top 4-H exhibits, displays, demonstrations and entertainment talent were presented at the four-day event.

Family Honors Dad On 80th Birthday

ROMULUS—A surprise party by the immediate members of his family highlighted the 80th birthday celebration of Stanley Wegienka, Sr.

The Birthday Party was held last Friday, Aug. 29.

Stanley Wegienka was born on a farm, located at 14107 Middlebelt Road. He remained a farmer until his retirement in August, 1961 and he currently resides with his only daughter, Irene, at 18255 Huron River Drive, New Boston. Mrs. Stanley Wegienka died in February, 1962.

DESPITE HIS age, the "spry young man" is still a farmer at heart. He keeps busy with his one-acre plot of ground growing an array of vegetables.

His children are: Matthew Wegienka of Falt Rock, Mich.; Mark Wegienka of Taylor, Luke Wegienka of Dearborn Heights, John Wegienka of New Boston, Stanley Wegienka, Jr., of Romulus and Irene of New Boston.

Stanley, Sr., has 17 grandchildren and all attended his birthday party which was celebrated at Carrawee Ballroom, Flat Rock, owned by son, Matthew.

ALSO AT the party was his only living brother, Frank Wegienka, who is 78 years old, and who still operates his Romulus Township farm.

House Bill Defeat is Requested

ROMULUS—The Romulus Township Board of Trustees are critically concerned on the passage by the House of Representatives of a House Bill No. 13270 (Tax Reform Act of 1969) Roderick E. Smith, Supervisor, reported.

Sections 601 and 602 of the bill dealing with the sale of municipal bonds which is now in the Senate Finance Committee, for a hearing would eliminate certain exemptions now available to municipal bond buyers. Smith stated.

These bonds have been in the tax exemption status and under this act this would be eliminated, resulting in higher interest rates.

"In my opinion final passage of the Bill would hamper public works projects and other related programs. I am writing to Senators Philip A. Hart and Robert P. Griffin urging defeat of this bill.

ANP Launches Plymouth Eagle

Residents of Plymouth and Plymouth Township now have a new weekly newspaper, the Plymouth Eagle, according to David J. Willett, general manager of Associated Newspapers, Inc.

He noted that the Plymouth Eagle is the eighth member of Associated's rapidly expanding chain of Michigan weeklies.

The entire 18 square miles of Plymouth and Plymouth Township will be served by the new publication, Willett explained, comprising some 28,500 residents, whose homes and businesses represent $176,500,000 in state equalized valuation.

Advent of the Plymouth Eagle now brings the total number of persons served by Associated to 248,000 in an area of 236.5 square miles.

Included in the Associated chain are the Westland Eagle, Wayne Eagle, Garden City Guardian - Review, Inkster Ledger - Star, Belleville Enterprise, Romulus Roman and Canton Eagle.

All Must Have Say On Tax Votes

Residents of the former Nankin Mills School District are beginning to notice the total effects of their new districts.

Those to the south of the Edward Hines Parkway are paying once again the highest tax rate (44.5 mills) in the state, a dubious title Wayne inherited when Nankin Mills went out of existence.

Those in the north in the Livonia District will be paying a total millage of 35.90, quite a drop from their Nankin Mills rate of 45.5. These residents will also derive the benefits of the already established Schoolcraft College District.

From the surface, it appears as if those living to the north benefited most. Such is not the case, for those residents in the south who have their children on full days, while some of those in the north will be on half days. The difference, of course, was millage elections. Wayne passed theirs; Livonia turned theirs down.

While the Nankin Mills residents were used to having their children on strange hours, the children always took a full course load on the split sessions.

But the Livonia situation is definitely one of half days in the real sense of the word. This will affect all the District's fourth through eighth graders.

One Nankin Mills resident pointed out that he is willing to pay to have a full day of school. And herein lies the one failure of the Nankin Mills reorganization.

As a part of the reorganization, Nankin Mills voters did not vote in any school election last June. There was no reason to hold one in Nankin Mills, and yet the residents were not a part of their new districts. These residents did not have a chance to make their feelings known on millage questions vital to the actual running of their new districts.

The original committee that studied the Nankin Mills situation recommended dissolving the district in time for the residents to vote in the new district. The school district officials said that such a move would be impossible, and that the change over should occur on the final day of the business year.

At the time, it seemed like a good reason to wait till the end of the fiscal year. Now, however, as many Nankin Mills residents now in Livonia face half days, more than a few wish they could have voted on that all-important millage election.

And probably a number of Nankin Mills residents living in Wayne are grateful that the Wayne District passed millage and assured all children of a full day of school.

It is really too late to do anything about the Nankin Mills situation, but in future reorganizations, school officials and residents alike should effect reorganizations that enable all, old and new, to have their say on millage questions that will affect the coming year.

Let's Have Action On Police Standards

Once again action on the two controversial items before the Inkster Civil Service Commission has been postponed. Both items concern the hiring of policemen—one raising the age limit and another concerning the unwritten rule that two members of the same family shall not serve in the same city department.

The "no-relative" rule became an issue early this summer when the brother of a policeman was passed over at hiring time. The City Council referred the raising of the age limit to the Commission, July 14.

Since then two men whose employment has been barred by these rules have been awaiting the outcome. A Civil Service Commission meeting was held July 29 with the City Councilmen present, but no action was taken because one of the Commissioners could not be present. The Aug. 26 meeting was cancelled because another of the Commissioners went on vacation. The next meeting will be the regularly scheduled September meeting, set for Sept. 23.

We see no reason why a special meeting of the Civil Service Commission could not be called to handle these matters. Certainly there must have been some night during the last two months when the three commissioners could have met to act on these items.

Instead there is another delay while the two men in question must continue to wait.

Let's All Help Hurricane Victims

Thousands of persons were made homeless by the winds and waves that smashed houses to splinters when Hurricane Camille battered the Gulf Coast from Louisiana to Florida.

Many of the families for whom the night of Aug. 17 was one of horror lack the resources to return to normal living unaided. They have lost everything through a calamity of nature which they were powerless to prevent or sidestep. They must be helped in the rebuilding of their shattered lives and homes.

The American Red Cross is the natural agent for this rebuilding, by virtue of both its experience and its readiness to help.

The people of Western Wayne have always heeded generously humanitarian appeals like this. Let us again open our hearts—and our pocketbooks—and make sure that the Red Cross receives the necessary funds to help our distressed neighbors on the Gulf Coast. Send or take your contribution to your nearest Red Cross chapter.

Reflections

It's All in How You Say It

By Joyce Hagelthorn

I don't know whether one just gets so used to looking at himself he doesn't really see himself, or whether things happen to one in the twinkling of the eye...because, just the other day I batted my eye, and suddenly looked a, frumpish, baggy-eyed, double-chinned middle-aged person I didn't even recognize.

"Who are you?" I asked...and she mimicked right back.

"I'm me," I said, "but I sure as heck have never seen YOU before!"

Something kept nagging at me, however, and I left my new-found acquaintance and called the beauty parlor. I called a different one...I thought maybe my own long-time friendly operator was too used to me.

Well...after the works were done I sat staring at myself...and I must truly say I was a new me. I took the mirror to look at the back of my head...and what I saw slid me back on memory's lane...and I felt the bubbles coming up from my stomach, and I started rolling around in that chair...completely cracked up.

For the shingled back of my head was making me see once again that little town in Grangeville, Idaho, where all of the ladies were going "ape" over the young barber in town...and were all having shingle bobs.

One hold-out was a huge German-born woman who lived directly behind us, and who had a habit of standing with arms folded one over the other and scratching the part of her that her fingers touched.

"I will never," she said in her German dialect, "I will never, never do such a sin. The Bible says as plain as the nose on your face that women should never cut their hair."

Now this woman had a son called Amos. She was crazy about that kid, having had him after she had given up all hopes of ever having a child...and her whole world evolved about him.

As anyone knows who has ever had kids, kids can be mighty cruel. And so we were with Amos.

Across the street from his house was a huge sandlot where we all played. And where we tormented Amos.

We teased him about his clothes, and we teased him about the smell of sauerkraut that always hung heavy in the air wherever Amos was, but most of all we teased him because his mother had long, stringy hair...and our mothers...ah, OUR mothers were young and gay...with shingle bobs.

Amos fought back pretty valiantly, throwing sand in our hair, and whopping us over the head with boards, and sticking loads down our necks, but there were five little girls...and he was just one little boy.

But he was thinking...and that thinking showed the day his mother came out on the porch, and with arms akimbo, scratching away, called "A...moos." and A...moos didn't move.

"Your mother's calling," we told him.

"I don't care," he muttered. Well, naturally, mother came and got him...but even in her anger, she was gentle with him and apparently her gentleness is why he must have told her his feelings...for the very next day came the incident which 40 years later cracked me up in a beauty parlor chair.

The German-born, hardly English-speaking woman took herself to the barbershop, plopped herself into a chair right next to my father, and shouted,

"I want my hair cut...like a man's behind!"

Slopped Up Kid Gives Hope

By Jim Fitzgerald

President Nixon and my 13-year-old daughter have unknowingly combined to give me hope for a lazy future.

First, Nixon announced his new welfare plan which would guarantee a family of four (that's us) an annual income of $3,920.

Second, daughter Chrissie explained to me why she wasn't going to the Little League game that evening. "I don't want to get all slopped up," she said.

To me, "all slopped up" has always meant getting drunk. But I knew this couldn't be the case with Chrissie. She is a budding WCTU member who spends family vacations counting my drinks and rolling her eyes in disgust at the total mounts.

A few questions cleared things up. Chrissie's problem was that she looked nice. She had on a dress, of all things, her hair was combed out of her mouth, and there were no toes sticking out of her shoes.

"I can't go to the ballgame looking like this," Chrissie said, "and I'm too tired to change into something ragged and dirty."

Thus continues the education of a stupid father.

But gee, I thought, if that kid wants to look lousy, there's no need to buy her new clothes. Also, her little brother has never had any interest in dressing up. Eddie has worn the same Detroit Tiger T-shirt for 93 consecutive days. And now that double-breasted suits and baggy pants are coming back, the next suit I buy will be for my investiture as president-emeritus of the local Senior Citizens club.

If I could somehow convince my wife it is fashionable to be all slopped up, maybe we could get by on $3,920 a year. Of course, we'd have to move into a tent, sell the car, and quit eating so often (once every two days should be about right). But a man must be prepared to make sacrifices if he wants to succeed in the dog-eat-man world.

A lot of people can't see much success in doing nothing for $75 a week. In fact, no matter what Barry Goldwater tells you, most of the people on welfare wish to heck they could find a job. But to each his own. Ever since I got my first paper route at the age of 11, my ambition in life has been to retire. I hate to work and love to sit and read. It's that simple.

I probably would have sat down for good by now except I temporarily lost my mind and got married and had kids. This set my retirement back several years, you can wager your bippy on that. I was, in fact, almost reconciled to changing typewriter ribbons until I was 65, just like most folks.

But Nixon's humanitarianism plus slopped up kids have given me the fresh courage needed to lift my goal. Maybe I can yet become the first 44-year-old man in my block to write fan letters to Rita Bell, TV hostess for the morning movie.

If nothing else, I would learn something from loving a little girl who doesn't wear a pretty dress because her dad can't afford to buy her one.

That might teach me a lesson.

Onward and Upward.

Make Way For Youth, Oldsters

By Dick McKnight

Nobody, it seems, knows quite what to do about today's crop of young people.

Most recently, the press nationally and locally has had a field day trying to figure out what kind of phenomenon was represented at the recent Woodstock Pop Rock Festival held in upstate New York.

The festival was variously described as a soul experience and a Roman orgy, neither of which is entirely true or false. While police reported little of the more popular crime—robberies, muggings, etc.—there was some trouble with open sales of drugs and young people "freaking out" because of a bad dose of LSD.

As perpetually seems the case (and this newspaperman has no real answer to it) there was no single report of the affair which seemed to hit the nail on the head. All of us probably have our own ideas about what went on at the Woodstock Festival, depending on how old we are, how adventurous we are and how easily we shock.

At a recent family gathering, I found that one of my younger cousins, now sporting a well-trimmed mustache, had been one of the reported 400,000 young people who went to New York to enjoy their celebration of youth.

He was disgusted about the way the whole thing has been reported in the press, and seemed to suggest that it was really a lot less appalling than the newspaper stories had painted it. He seems to be a perfectly sane, if youthfully energetic young man, and he was entirely believable.

The lesson he brought home was that it is mighty easy to dismiss the Woodstock phenomenon when you don't know anybody who went there. It's easy to say, "Well, that was just a bunch of hippies, long hairs and malcontents, boozing it up and having sex all over the place."

But when you discover that your own cousin was in the crowd you have to take a different view. You know he isn't like that, so why should all the rest of them be like that?

The conclusion is that there isn't a thing wrong with all of the kids who took part in the Festival, other than the fact that they are afflicted with incurable disease of being young. Only time changes that.

What is beautiful, and at the same time frightening to those who don't understand it, is the fact that so many young people could gather in one place and simply bask in the power and glory of being young. It is a matter of instant kinship based on the fact that they are young in a world controlled by others.

For one small stretch of three days, all those young people lived in a world that was entirely their own. They weren't afraid of it and, in fact, seemed to control it quite well.

For three days they sat around and poked fun at us, did their own things and enjoyed the freedom that this out-of-the-way place allowed them. Even the police were somehow awed by it all, and stood back and watched.

Of course, this was not a real world. It was a world of innocence—as one national magazine put it—one of those fleeting glimpses of glory that each of those youngsters will carry into old age. There were excesses, to be sure, and some of those drug users will pay for the experience of pain, but in general it was a removed world, away from the pressures of adulthood.

What the Woodstock phenomenon should indicate to all of us is that it is unfortunate that those 400,000 young people had to travel to someplace out in the sticks in upstate New York to do their thing and enjoy their own world.

What is wrong with our communities that our young people have to go underground to express themselves? Why couldn't this same sort of thing—minus the drugs—be an accepted part of life in every community? Why not a rock band and protest music coming from the bandstands of public parks everywhere? The oldsters can have it one day, and the youngsters the next.

It seems we may have to make room for the young in our lives. Someday they will control our destinies.

Picture Taking To Determine Water Pollution

ANNARBOR — University of Michigan researchers are going to "take a picture" of water pollution in Detroit River.

They hope to find out whether their special aerial picture-taking — or airborne remote sensing with the University-developed multispectral sensor — can detect water pollution and identify the pollutant. In theory, they say, it should be possible.

Although little such work has been done in the past, "airborne surveillance techniques appear to be particularly suited in areas with large bodies of water, such as the Great Lakes," explained Prof. Chester T. Wezernak of the U-M School of Public Health, who will direct the project. It is being supported by funds awarded the U-M under the National Science Foundation Sea Grant Program.

REMOTE SENSING is the term commonly applied to electronic means of mapping from afar, usually from airplanes and satellites. In essence, it is based on the fact that, just as each man has his own unduplicated finger print, each material has its own "spectral signature." That is, each substance is unique in its radiation and reflection of visible, infrared, and ultraviolet waves.

Thus, any body of water that varies in its physical, chemical, and biological properties should yield corresponding differences in spectral signatures.

The ability to precisely detect such spectral signatures has been greatly increased by the "multispectral" sensor, developed by the U-M Institute of Science and Technology.

Working with both the data from aerial scanning and the data collected simultaneously at water level, Prof. Wezernak will assess how well the multispectral sensor can detect, identify, and monitor sources of water pollution.

INDUSTRIAL EFFLUENTS — from chemical plants, steel producers, automotive plants — will receive major attention, according to Prof. Wezernak. The main test sites will be along the Detroit River down to Lake Erie.

"Only airborne techniques appear to offer the scope and timeliness to meet the challenge of monitoring the numerous and varied industrial waste discharges into the Great Lakes and their tributary waters," Prof. Wezernak noted.

"Additionally, airborne techniques could provide the background information which would serve as evidence of the effectiveness of the pollution control program and detect changes in large bodies of water such as Lake Erie and Lake Michigan."

PROF. WEZERNAK explained that remote sensing has been used successfully as a research tool in forestry, geology, agriculture, and other fields. A number of reports, he added, have shown that aerial imagery has the potential to make an important contribution to water pollution control.

In the general area of industrial pollution surveillance, the expanded capabilities of multispectral sensing can be expected to help identify the pollutant and detect variations in concentration of the pollutant, Prof. Wezernak said.

Research engineer Fabian C. Polcyn, of the U-M

Infrared an Optical Sensor Laboratory, will work with Prof. Wezernak.

Hospital Positions Approved

Filling of 42 new positions at Wayne County General Hospital has been authorized by the County Board of Supervisors.

The positions, which include eight new jobs in Michigan's largest artificial kidney center, were included in the hospital's budget for the current year.

After taking office in January, the new Board of Supervisors ordered a freeze on the filling of all new jobs pending review of the need by the supervisors.

The order was issued due to the danger of a deficit in the budget which the new board inherited from the old.

Planners Approved Rezoning

BELLEVILLE—The Van Buren Planning Commission has recommended a rezoning petition filed by Landy Box of Belleville.

The petition asked that approximately eight acres of land, located on Rawsonville in the rear of Hub site, be rezoned from its present R-1B (single residential) to C-E (general business).

The recommendation is yet to be acted upon by the Township Board.

HIGH SUMMERTIME

It's August, so summer still is here,
Though all too soon she will be gone;
We waited for her in cold winter days,
And truly the waiting seemed too long.

June and July brought roses red,
Underneath the summer skies,
Making our outdoor world a picture
Of magic glory and surprise.

Enjoy the lovely summer evenings,
Summer's here, don't let her slip by—
Green countryside and colorful gardens,
And summer will pass in the wink of an eye.

Security Time Savings... the "decision makers" way to enjoy life!

Think of it... at the end of each calendar quarter Security Time Savers are faced with a delightful decision... what to do with their interest... interest that never seems to stop growing! We developed STS for people who can stand up under the quarterly "burden" of having to decide where to spend 5% interest, compounded continuously, as it piles up in their account! All it takes to get in, is an initial deposit of $1000. From then on, deposits of $50 or more, will do just fine. To make sure you are aware of how your money is growing, we provide a quarterly statement of activity. And for tax purposes, as well as your own records, we forward a year end statement. And do we play "hard to get" when you want your money? Not on your life! You can withdraw all, or part of your savings at any time during the first 10 days of each calendar quarter, or with 90 days (the minimum legal requirement) written notice. If you haven't opened a Security Time Savings Account yet, get with it! If you have, prepare yourself... the next interest payment is closer than you think! And, by the way, if the thought of having to make periodic decisions is standing between you and opening an account, relax... we'll be happy to add the interest to your account and let your money continue to multiply, or mail you a check. "Enjoy life," with a Security Time Savings Account!

Corn On The Cob -- Plus

THE FOX WOODS picnic area at Metro Park was the meeting place last Tuesday for members of the Belleville Kiwanis Club and their families. Over 100 sat down to a sumptuous dinner of ham and corn on the cob plus the variety of dishes which the staff side provided.

Veep Archie Gauthier and treasurer Olin Wyman manned the huge vats of boiling corn which were passed out by the kettleful. Saw a few new faces this year, the Doug Cullins having brought their son, Carl, and his new wife and the Irv Wallaces their daughter and son-in-law, Linda and Don Ritzheim. Connie and Toni Schwartz, another young couple, were guests of her parents, the Tom Hopkas, and Jim and Carol Fitch had his dad and mother, the Glen Fitchs from Hillsdale, as their dinner partners.

The Club's newest members, Jerry Jarrett and Dick Bode, were also there with their families to meet the 'organization.' The younger set (and they ranged from several months on up) found fun in the nature trails and playground equipment while their dads took to the horseshoe pits for the traditional competition.

Home Arts To Resume September 8

The first meeting of the season for the Home Arts Club has been scheduled for Monday, September 8, at 8 p.m. The Junior High School library, off Sumpter Road, has been reserved for that date. The location for subsequent meetings will be decided upon and announced.

The group meets monthly and provides entertaining and enlightening programs throughout the year. This meeting has been planned as a game night to provide an opportunity for discussing summer adventures and for renewing friendships. Circle the date on your calendar, remember the new location, and come prepared for a short business meeting followed by lots of fun.

New members and guests are always welcome. For additional information call Marguerite Greathouse, 697-8478; Jan Sierota, 697-7434; or Elaine Habel 697-0152.

Tip-Top Tomatoes

Take advantage of summer's bounty. Serve red-ripe tomatoes topped with canned corned beef hash.

For 6 servings slice tops from 6 tomatoes, scoop out pulp and lightly salt inside. Combine 1 can (16 ounces) of corned beef hash with 1/4 cup nonfat dry milk and 1 teaspoon prepared mustard. Fill tomatoes with meat mixture and place in a baking pan or casserole. Bake at 400 degrees F. 20 to 25 minutes or until heated through.

More than 70% of American families own equipment for outdoor cooking. It's estimated 1.3 million meals will be cooked in back yards, on beaches, in parks, or in camping areas this year.

Enjoy Family Gathering

TAKING ADVANTAGE of one of the nicest Sundays of the year, the Arthur Shephards and son, Brian, of Elwell road, entertained at a family picnic Sunday, August 24.

Driving out from Flint for the pot-luck fare were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jahncke (Mrs. S's brother and sister-in-law.) And those arriving from nearby Ypsilanti were Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Jahncke, Ronnie and Lynn Jahncke and their three children, and Jim and Joanne Pryce and sons.

Still, others enjoying the afternoon get-together were Dave and Glenna Mae James and their quintet, from Detroit; Mrs. Myrtle Ferguson, from Kansas City, Missouri; and Bellevillites, Diane and Roger Ferguson and their three children, the Fay Fergusons and daughter, Marie, and Pat Sliwa.

Motorcycling on a special track on the Shephard's acreage, badminton, and cooling off in the pool, were all part of the fun.

Later in the evening the Shephards and Richard Jahnckes motored to Highland Park to visit their dad, 85-year old Edward Jahncke. A resident of the Ford Convalescent Home, he was happy to recount his day's activities to the foursome. Among the Home's residents to enjoy a bus trip to Belle Isle, he took part in the picnic dinner and dominoes session which followed and was proud to announce that he'd "beaten 'em all."

Mr. Jahncke formerly resided on Wabash Street, in Belleville.

Sixteen -- How Sweet It Is!

THERE WAS a very special birthday to celebrate Friday night at the John Bokon home on Willis road -- that of their daughter, Kathy, who was 16 (plus). Having reached the magic number in May, Kathy's party had to be postponed because of the hospitalization of her mother on that very day and her subsequent weeks of being in traction followed by a convalescent period.

Spending the evening with the Bokon and enjoying cards and a midnight buffet were Kathy's sisters, Jan Ross and Mary Bokon from Garden City and Barbara Lewis, of Belleville, as well as Ed and Mary Anne Hudge, Bert and Lee Smith, Bill and Flo Hudge, and Tom and Grace Hudge.

Meat pies are pies, of course, but they're also stew. In fact, a good way to vary the second-day serving of stew is to place it in a pie pan or casserole, adding a different vegetable when necessary, then topping with pastry, biscuits, mashed potatoes or cereal crumbs.

Old-time Threshing Bee Attracts Crowd

BY SHIRLEY HAVENSTEIN
753-4258

Many residents of this area and surrounding communities attended an old-fashioned threshing bee in Maybee Sunday, August 24, at the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Waechter, of Stoffas Road.

A Bell City separator and a Baker separator, operated by two tractors, a 1925 and a 1926 John Deere, model L, owned by Mr. Waechter, were used for the bee.

The oats to be threshed were loaded on wagons and taken to the separators by the guests. Women guests displayed their ability by pitching the last load of grain from the five and a half acre field into the threshing machine.

Refreshments served by the hostess were most welcome in the 94 degree temperature.

ATTENDING THE bee were Mr. and Mrs. William Krueger, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Waechter with Sherry, Shelby and Beth, and Helen Krueger and grandchildren, Lois and Kyle, all of Romulus; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Krause, Harold

AND HERE ARE SOME TIPS

It's Sandwich Time Again All Across The Country

Over 200 million sandwiches are served every day in America. They are served regularly in 98% of all U.S. households. Children, homemakers, businessmen and grandmothers, all have their favorites-for breakfast, lunch, dinner or snacks.

For example, at breakfast try a combination of scrambled eggs, grated cheese, chopped olives and bacon on rye bread. Complete the meal with fresh fruit juice. Or, serve simple grilled cheese sandwiches to provide the pickup and stying power needed for morning nourishment. Easy to eat sandwiches lend variety to well-planned breakfasts.

Sandwiches are an excellent source of protein, when meat, fish, poultry, eggs, cheese or peanut butter serve as the sandwich filling. Animal protein supplements the protein of bread, giving a broader range of amino acids for building body tissue. Peanut butter is one of the most economical and nutritious of foods. Two ounces of peanut butter (the right amount for a sandwich) provides the same amount of protein as two whole eggs, and more protein than a glass of milk. It has more protein per ounce than beef, ham, chicken or liver. Peanut butter is a good source of certain B vitamins, too.

Your freezer can eliminate the time-consuming, sometimes monotonous task of packaging a lunch every morning. No need for hectic, frantic last-minute preparation. Plan, prepare and freeze the entire menu or a major part of it for two weeks in advance. The foods will thaw and be tasty-fresh when lunch-time rolls around. Plan a lunch box area in your freezer. Prepare a variety of cupcakes, cookies, sandwiches, soups and/or juices. Package and label each separately and let each member of the lunch box set make his own selection. Or, package each lunch box combination, making your own selection and label package contents so members of the family can choose combination which appeals to him that particular day.

Avoid freezing these foods:

1. Cooked egg whites-they become dry and tough.
2. Raw vegetables such as lettuce, celery, tomatoes and carrots. Add them fresh when packing the lunch.
3. Mayonnaise or salad dressing-they separate when frozen and soak into the bread upon thawing. If necessary, use sparingly as binders for fillings.

FOODS TO SELECT:

Cold Soups-vichyssoise, tomato, bouillon, cream of avocado, spinach, asparagus, clam chowder, beet or cranberry borscht. Freeze in small 8-oz. glass, plastic, or other small freezer containers.

Desserts-Cupcakes: Bake several kinds and give them a variety of frostings.

When making sandwiches, use a production-like technique:

1. Remove butter or margarine from refrigerator soften, ready for easy, quick spreading.

2. Decide what fillings you are going to make. Prepare fillings and place in the refrigerator until ready for use.

3. Assemble all wrapping and packaging material.

4. Line up bread, using various kinds-whole wheat, rye, white, pumpernickel, graham and fruit-flavored.

5. Spread all slices with softened butter or margarine. Spread to the edges of the bread to prevent filling from soaking into the bread when thawed.

6. Standardize portions of fillings and speed up preparation by using an ice cream scoop or a definite measure of filling per sandwich. Be sure to spread filling evenly on bread to insure even thawing time of sandwich.

7. Close sandwich.

8. Stack two or three sandwiches and cut all at once with a sharp knife to speed up operation. Cut into sizes that are easy to handle.

If you want to make a big hit with small children, cut sandwiches into various shapes.

Since sandwiches are the mainstay of any box lunch use your imagination and try different seasonings or combinations.

Meat of Poultry
Diced chicken, cream cheese, grated orange rind.
Ground salami and cream cheese.

Ground ham, chopped dill pickles, mustard.

Fish
Tuna and crushed pineapple.

Mashed bonilessardines, hard-cooked egg yolk, lemon juice.

Cheese
Cream cheese, stuffed olives, crushed peanuts.

Cream cheese, dried beef, horseradish.

Grated American cheese, dried beef, chili sauce.

No one will object to carrying a lunch when monotony is absent and good flavor and variety can be anticipated.

A HAND FROM THE YOUNGER SET-Nora Hodge (center), four-year old daughter of the Edward Hedges, of Haggerty road, was on hand as Mrs. Kurt Domcik was passing food to Lee Schmidt, son of Kiwanis Club member and Mrs. Kenn Schmidt. The threesome was just part of the large group which gathered last Tuesday evening at Lower Huron Metro Park for the Kiwanis Club's annual corn roast and buffet dinner.

Dress Sensibly for Safety

Mini-skirts may be responsible for distractions which cause males to bump into doors or fall down stairs, but actually overdressing accounts for more mishaps on the job, according to the Bureau of Safety and Regulation, Michigan Department of Labor.

Proper dress at work is important to your safety, consultants of the Bureau's Safety Education and Training Division point out. "Dress for the job," they advise.

LOOSE FITTING clothing, long shirt sleeves and cuffed trousers can become entangled in machinery and pull the wearer into a serious injury.

Community College Names 1st Art Director

The Wayne County Community College has announced the appointment of Bruce E. Millan as Director of the "Consortium of the Arts". The consortium will emanate from the Detroit Repertory Theatre and is conceived as a grouping of semi-autonomous artistic entities operating in proximity, utilizing neighborhood structures and facilities to bring about a new relationship between the working artist and the educational process and the working artist and the community.

The unprecedented nature of the project and its implications to Community College Systems and to the concepts of community revitalization throughout the country has already aroused national interest and makes the infant Wayne County Community College a promising candidate for national recognition and national prestige.

The three year planning and development budget for the "Consortium" will be funded in its entirety the first year and partially for the next two years by the New Detroit Inc. Committee. Budget for instruction will be generated through state aid tuition formulas in accordance with the current status of the Wayne County Community College.

Additional monies will be sought through private philanthropy, Federal, state and local agencies in order to bring the "Consortium" concept into reality.

Bruce Millan, author of the "Consortium of the Arts" conception has long been associated with innovative cultural projects designed to reach the uninitiated. In addition to being Producer of the Detroit Repertory's professional theatre operation (a member of the League of Regional Theatres) for 14 years, he is an appointee of the theatre committee of the Michigan Council of the Arts and a founding member of the Afro-American Cultural Development Foundation.

In 1966-67 he authored, instituted and administered a $400,000 professional "in-school" theatre tour made possible through grants under Title I of the 1965 Federal Aid to Education Act in cooperation with the Detroit Public Schools.

Mr. Millan has written numerous essays and articles he has written some 15 plays, won two National writing awards; and is correspondent for the magazine "Black Theatre". Currently he has a play under option to a New York Producer and his piece entitled "Living Text, Opus One - Reconstruction" has been highly acclaimed by New York Times and Village Voice critic Julius Novick.

The "Consortium of the Arts" will begin straight instructional work at the Detroit Repertory Theatre, 13103 Woodrow Wilson this fall while the planning and development of the full conception are in progress.

The Consortium courses for fall semester are Art 156, Art Appreciation, 9 - 12 noon, Mondays; Eng. 252, Recent American Literature, 1 - 4 p.m. Mondays and Wednesdays; Soc. 252 Social Problems 9-12 noon, Tuesdays; Sph 261, Public Speaking, 1-4 p.m. Tuesdays; His. 261, Afro-American History, 9-12 noon, Wednesdays, Eng. 151, College English I, 1-4 p.m. Wednesdays, Eng., 156, Introduction to Theatre, 1-4 p.m. Mondays.

Book Store Manager Appointed

DETROIT — Dominic Cuda, a former Marine from Shelton, Conn., with an encyclopedic knowledge of text books and an absorbing interest in baseball and football, has been named the Manager of the Mercy College Book Store, 8200 West Outer Drive.

Prior to his Mercy College appointment, Mr. Cuda was Manager of Professional Books, Inc., a division of Detroit Text Book Stores.

He is a member of the National Association of College Bookstores and the Great Lakes Booksellers Association. Though he still plays semi-pro baseball, it is becoming more and more a spectator sport for him. With his wife and two children, Cuda lives in Westland.

Interconnections are now so sophisticated in the electric utility industry that Detroit Edison, through the Michigan Electric Power Pool, was able to supply 300,000 kw of electric power to New York State and the entire eastern seaboard during a period of extremely high demand last July.

Regional Office Issues GI Reminder

DETROIT—The Veterans Administration has reminded returning veterans they are eligible for home loans for 12 to 20 years after they get out of service.

Robert M. FitzGerald, Manager of the Detroit VA Regional Office, explained that eligible veterans who served after January 31, 1955, will have a maximum of 20 years from the date of their discharge or until March 3, 1976, whichever is later, to take advantage of their G.I. home loan benefit.

To determine the expiration date of his own eligibility, each veteran who served after Jan. 31, 1955, can assume that he has 10 years after his discharge from active duty plus one year for each three months of military service, FitzGerald explained.

THUS, HE said, a Vietnam era veteran with two years service, for example, would have 18 years after discharge to use his G.I. Bill Loan guaranty entitlement.

Nationally, 254,383 applications for VA loan guarantees were received for the 12-month period ending June 30, FitzGerald said, adding that 6,191 applications were received at the VA Regional Office in Detroit.

FitzGerald pointed out that the 1969 total of 154,383 only slightly exceeded the 253,755 national total for 1968 when 5,301 loan applications were received at the VA Regional Office in Detroit.

These national totals for 1968 and 1969 were the highest since 1957.

The growing volume of applications in 1969 is attributed primarily to the increasing number of young Vietnam era veterans, Mr. FitzGerald said.

Savings to the Detroit Edison Company in 1968 from ideas submitted by company employees and adopted under the Employee Proposal Plan totaled $405,879. Cash paid to employees through the plan totaled $46,077 for 305 awards, an average of $15 per award.

Enhance Your Home

Is your mantel a dusty collection of clutter or a harmonious arrangement of favored accessories?

The transformation from disarray to balanced design in home interiors can be accomplished quite simply when you make the most of your accessories, advises Kathleen Bufton, Cooperative Extension home economist for Wayne County.

She says repetition, variation, proportion, balance, dominance, and subordination are the guiding principles in accessories.

"BUT NOT all six principles can be used at one time or in any specified order," she adds. "Start with the basic furniture pieces in your room, then use some of your accessories and whatever principles you feel are needed to arrange an area in your home which is pleasing. It need not be a whole room."

Remember that accessories do not stand alone, they complement and enhance your basic furniture units. Since accessories are arranged against a background, you will want to keep them within the space and shape formed by your furniture," she reminds.

A new publication, "Arranging Accessories in the Home," is available from the Wayne County Cooperative Extension Service office in Wayne.

PORTLAND, ORE., OREGONIAN: "Whether they like it or not, the country's college and university administrators are in the position of setting an example of law enforcement with justice. Their failure on any considerable scale would almost certainly subject other institutions to non-negotiable demands and physical intimidation. Under such circumstances, it would be suicidal to consider or to bar from the campuses the lawful operations of state and community law enforcement agencies, when needed."

THE MIGRANT PROGRAM

Special Help For Kids Almost Totally Ignored

"We are doing some things to help kids who for the most part have been almost totally ignored in the usual scheme of things."

This was the substance of a report Dr. Arnold Glovinsky made recently to the Wayne County Intermediate School District Board of Education. Dr. Glovinsky was discussing the Migrant Program he heads for the intermediate district.

The Migrant Program is tailored to meet the needs of children whose parents have left the mainstream of migrant farm workers and have settled in Detroit. Principally, they are Mexican-Americans who migrate north from Southwestern states.

THE PROGRAM headed by Dr. Glovinsky has operated for about one year in the southwest region of Detroit. The children being helped attend Earhart Junior High, Webster and Preston Elementary Schools. Children in two Detroit parochial schools, Holy Trinity and St. Anne, also receive services.

These children are being helped by two teacher-counselors and three paraprofessionals who understand well the handicaps faced by migrant farm worker children, most of whom have parents who speak no English.

This staff speaks Spanish. Their ability to talk with the children and their parents, and their genuine interest in these children and their families is what Dr. Glovinsky was referring to when he said, "we are helping where there was no help before."

The program has paid rich dividends for the kids and their families both educationally and in the realization that somebody does care. Through the efforts of teacher-counselors, Miss Lynne Bernard and Gumecindo Salas, children are being helped to "negotiate" a system they previously found confusing. Through the efforts of program staff several children have been moved from lower grades, where they were over-aged, to their proper grade level where they have achieved remarkably well. Two of those upgraded became junior high school honor students.

TWO MEXICAN-AMERICAN Western High graduates, one an ex-migrant, have been helped in gaining college scholarships. This is an outstanding accomplishment for children from families which quite likely never before have had a child graduate from high school.

Three women from the community work as paraprofessionals with the Migrant Program. Mrs. Baudelia Estrada, Mrs. Rose Aguilar and Mrs. Louise Plasencia have brought to the program their practical knowledge of the problems facing migrant children.

Their insight for working both with the children and the home has added a dimension only they could bring, according to Dr. Glovinsky.

Wayne County Intermediate Board members complimented Dr. Glovinsky and his staff for their dedication, concern, and contribution to these forgotten young Americans.

MEMBERS OF the board also expressed concern for the future of the program and indicated their support for its continuation. A request for continuation for 1969-1970 has been submitted to the State Department of Education, but no decision has yet been made.

Van Buren To Vote on Franchise

BELLEVILLE...The granting of a franchise to the Detroit Edison Company to permit the firm to conduct its business in Van Buren Township will be up to the Voters.

A special election to be paid for by the firm will be held on Sept. 16. Voters will be asked to vote either Yes or No on confirming grant of franchise to the Company.

The franchise if approved would permit the company to erect, construct and maintain of towers, poles, mains, wires, pipes, conduits, apparatus, etc. requisite for the transmission, transforming and distribution of electricity for public and private use. The franchise would be for 30 years.

The polls will open at 7 a.m. and all in line at 8 p.m. will be permitted to vote. Mrs. Erma Jean Payne, township clerk, announced. Deadline for registering to vote in this election is Friday, Aug. 15 from 8 a.m. until 8 p.m. at the Van Buren Township Hall, 46425 Tyler Road.

Sumpter Sets Regulations On Burning

SUMPTER-The burning of brush piles and field fires for the purpose of clearing land is prohibited in Sumpter Township except upon written request signed by the township supervisor and township clerk.

A resolution on the regulation of open fire was approved by the Township Board Aug. 26, Clerk Robert D. Marble, announced.

THE RESOLUTION sets forth rules and regulations on open fires in the Township and provides penalties if violated.

Among the regulations is a provision that the burning of rubbish, waste material is prohibited except when the fire is contained in a suitable container or incinerator with cover sufficient to prevent emission of sparks and burning embers, and when burning is done at least 15 feet from adjacent open fields.

Michigan State University crop scientists found that a herbicide's killing power may depend on nitrogen available to the weed. In laboratory studies with cats, high nitrogen stimulated earlier plant death when applied with atrazine and linuron.

WHAT'S GOING ON? GRANDPA? -- That seems to be the question on Holly Fitch's face as she and her grandfather, Glen Fitch, watch the horseshoe game between members of the Belleville Kiwanis Club. Mr. Fitch and his wife were here from Hillsdale and attended the Club's annual corn roast as guests of their son and daughter-in-law, Jim and Carol Fitch. Holly is their six-year old daughter.

AT MANNING'S STORE

Free College Tuition Contest Opens

BELLEVILLE--If somebody offered you a year's free tuition at the college of your choice, would you jump at the chance, wouldn't you? Well, start jumping. And the place to start is at Manning's Department Store, 424 Main Street. Because we've got something great going here with Bates.

It's called the Piping Rock 2nd Annual "Send Me to College" Contest. You don't have to be a Phi Beta to enter. A signature on a ballot does it. (You do have to be at least 16 years old, however.) Contest opens Sept. 8 and concludes, Oct. 3.

Who knows? You could be one of the three students who'll wind up in Taxidermy III or Toxicology II with Bates compliments.

But whatever the outcome, do let Bates complement your room.

WHAT WE suggest is their Piping Rock bedspread. And why we suggest it is this: It comes in all of 18 wild and wonderful colors. So you can toss a (color) pillow on a (color) Piping Rock and give your bed the chance to share your school spirit. (Bet you can also match your best friend's school colors. Or those of your father's alma mater. Or your mama's.) You can even give your bed one color treatment and talk your roommate into reversing the order on hers!

And study this. No amount of spillage can muddy Piping Rock's color. It resists stains staunchly. It goes from washer to dryer to bed in an hour. And it doesn't need ironing. Bates has schooled it that well.

You'd do well to pick up a Piping Rock at Manning's Department Store. And maybe, just maybe, Bates will pick up your college tuition tab next year.

Belleville Counts on Spirit, Hustle For Winning Season

The Belleville football team, entering its third season under the direction of Head Coach, Jim Richendollar, got off to a good start as 50 varsity candidates began preparation for the coming season.

Coming off a fine summer conditioning program which included weight lifting and running, a determined breed of Tigers will take the field Sept. 12 against the Wayne Zebras.

Richendollar appraised his team by saying, "Our young men are in tremendous physical condition and have an attitude and spirit that is something to marvel at."

The Tiger defense, which asserted itself effectively in the latter part of last season, figures to be even more formidable this season, according to Richendollar.

The defense boasts All-League Jim Singleton, a 190-pounder with tremendous speed and ability. Aiding him will be two outstanding linebackers, Rick Mussehl and Chris Boyd, both of whom weigh 200 pounds. Starters Larry Mewitt and Dale Kaulitz are expected to anchor the ends with David Yocum and Tom Brown pushing them hard for starting jobs. The defensive secondary is not at all set with Dan Smith, Dave Remus, Richard Watkins, Glen Reinhackel, Mukey Black, Ed Glielinski and Chris Lambert fighting it out.

The defense will also be bolstered by the return of Dennis Sullens and 215-pound Mark Pellecchia, along with newcomers Victor Ogletree, Eric Center and John Thompson.

Leading the Tigers offensively will be veteran quarterback Dick Wenzel who has shown well in the early going. Belleville will rely on the running of veteran fullbacks Cal Glielinski and Bob Brooks, plus halfback Mickey Fant to complement the passing of Wenzel.

Coach Richendollar: "Football Is A Team Effort"

Garrade Pettus, the state's second best high jumper at 6'5", will be setting his sights even higher as he turns it on as the Tiger Tailback. Other backs Greg Sheldon, Jeff King, and Thompson also are running well, according to coach Richendollar.

The offensive line, headed by "Big Cat" Rick Mussehl at 6'4" and 205 pounds, has pleased Richendollar because of what he calls "great intensity, toughness and pride."

Mark Pellecchia, Kevin Meyer, Steve Billings, Singleton and Boyd seem to have the inside track on offensive starting berths. Lucas, M. Mussehl, Krajewski, Simons, Smith, Hughes, Mida and Fix are in hot pursuit.

Four receivers seem to be having a red-hot battle for the end positions. Alan Vandecar and Tonny Ogletree are righting it out with Fowler and Gower.

An injury to Bart Kraus and the inexperience of 6'3", 230-pound sophomore Keith Simons has hampered the Tigers, but both gridders should be heard from before the season is over, Richendollar says.

Richendollar is very optimistic about Belleville's chances this year and the determined coach smiles in anticipation of the coming season.

When asked about the chances of his team in the league, the football mentor replied, "Football is a team effort involving sacrifice and desire. I have a group of unselfish, dedicated, intense and highly spirited young men and we will shine in '69!"

Coming from an unselfish, dedicated, intense and highly spirited coach who gives his best in everything he undertakes, that is quite a compliment.

Now it's up to the Tigers to show what they can do out on the football field.

22 Lettermen Encourage Coach Pratt

Romulus Grid Chances Ride On Vets, Glinski's Arm

BY JIM BRADLEY
ANP Sports Writer

The only way to look is up for Head Coach George Pratt and his Romulus Eagles after their 1-7-1 record of last season.

And that's just where they intend to go! With an experienced group of seven backs to draw from, third year coach Pratt feels he has the "horses" to carry the ball. Quarterback Chris Glinski's passing, which was the highlight of an otherwise dismal season last year, also brings a gleam to the coach's eye.

Pratt knows it takes the running game to make the aerial plans work and vice-versa. But combining the two in just the right proportion is what's being worked out right now in long sessions on the practice field. Team spirit and hustle is what the coach is looking for.

To instill a feeling of togetherness, Coach Pratt and Coach Mike Zaher took 14 returning lettermen on a trip to Beaver Island for the week of Aug. 11-16. Located two hours out of Charlevoix near the Straits of Mackinaw, it was an ideal place to camp out and work on a physical and mental fitness program.

The physical fitness program included daily five-mile jogs, racing over and around obstacle course, 12-mile hikes and doing their own cooking and washing their dishes. Pratt's innovative jaunt northward has paid big dividends, according to all reports.

Even the players applauded the experiment. "Oh, there were the normal little cliques at first," Coach Pratt says, "but after a little while everyone was working and thinking together and it was an 'all of us' type of thing."

One player who made the journey said: "Yes, it sure was great and we learned a lot about teamwork and team spirit." He also said it was fun doing his own cooking and dishes.

Romulus has 52 boys out for football this year and has hopes of developing a winning team after a losing 1968 season. Returning to the Eagle grid squad are 12 linemen and 10 backs who have had game experience.

Veteran backs returning are led by quarterback Chris Glinski who Pratt hopes will develop into a fine field general this year after last year's experience at the helm. All-League and honorable mention All-Area defensive halfback, Paul Seestedt, who intercepted 8 passes, will lead the defensive corps. Others highly rated are quarterback, Ken McMann, back-up to Glinski, but very hard-nosed and valuable on defense; breakaway runner Rance Thomas; hard-running, redhead Dave Brown, who fights for every yard he can get; Waynard Shreve, good defensive back, and hardworking halfbacks, John Arrington, Bill Worden and Otha Wilkins and fullback, Darryl Butler, who likes to hit.

Romulus' 1-7-1 record of 1968 is a little deceiving at first glance. They were in almost every game except possibly three. They lost 32-0, 27-7 and to River Rouge, 33-18, in some of their worst showings.

Rouge, who was ranked 2 or 3 in the state most of the season, ran up a 33-0 lead and their gentleman coach used substitutes the rest of the way, allowing Romulus to score 18 points and make the score respectable. Pratt had words of praise for the Rouge coach.

"He was a real sportsman. I know many coaches that would have been after a real slaughter so they could get a higher state ranking for their football team, but not the Rouge coach," Pratt said.

Willow Run beat the Eagles without their offense scoring a touchdown. They scored on a punt return, a pass interception and a fumble recovery in their 19-7 win.

Probably the 19-13 loss to Ecorse was the most painful of all. Leading, 13-12, with about two minutes to play,

THE SPORTS MERIDIAN

By Joe La Scola
Head Football Coach
Cherry Hill High School

When Tom asked me to write an article for him this month, I thought: why not? It shouldn't be very difficult to write about something that I have lived with for the past twenty-two years.

But believe me, it has shed a new light on the life of a sportswriter for me.

I would like to share a few of the feelings a coach has for his players, and the sport of football in general. We have been hard at work practicing this grand sport for the past week at Cherry Hill.

As a coach I have the opportunity to see boys in adverse situations, not often revealed to parents. I see them laugh, cry, perspire, bleed, and sometimes gasping for air.

I see them with a gleam in their eye because they have succeeded in a good fake, block, or run.

I watch them in moments of failure; they missed a block, or tripped or did something that lets the team down. I anxiously look for their next sign.

This is the one that will tell me if the boy has it or if he needs help. Will he grit his teeth and show a look of determination or will he hang his head as if to say, "Oh well, it's not that important anyway?"

If the second sign appears, the coach swings into action. We correct the mistake; we motivate the boy.

Some you pat on the back, some you scold, others you hug, and still others you must scream at to emphasize the important role the lad is playing on the team.

Gridders Candy Sale

More than 1500 Midget gridders in seven suburban communities of Garden City, Livonia, Westland, Northville, Romulus, Plymouth and Dearborn Heights are planning to kick off the fall season with a massive door-to-door candy sale.

Purpose of the giant sale is to raise funds to purchase equipment and pay costs of the Western Suburban Junior Football League. Boys nine through twelve participate in this program, a football equivalent to baseball's little league.

Arrangements have been made with the Heath Candy Company of Robinson, Illinois to sell 75,000 one-dollar boxes of English toffee candy in a five-week campaign beginning September 6.

A successful campaign will assure participation of every boy in all fifteen units of the Western Suburban Junior Football League.

Little League Football embraces boys ages 9-12 and plays on a regulation size field under high school rules.

Some of the more interesting playing rules are that block numerals of not more than 8 inches, nor less than 6 inches, shall be required on the back of the jersey; and block numerals of at least 4 inches on the front of the jersey.

Rubber cleated high top football shoes with canvas tops must be worn by all players in all games, and no low cut or three-quarter shoes are allowed.

Hail to Patsy, Process Shot Head Field

$20,000 Stakes Billed At DRC Saturday

Two of the most highly regarded fillies racing in the United States this year are among the 42 horses nominated as possible starters in the $20,000 - added Damsels Stakes to be raced at the Detroit Race Course Saturday September 6.

Elberon Farm's Process Shot and John W. Winnett's Hail to Patsy head the field of nominees who will have to travel a mile and one-sixteenth before walking into the winners circle. Starters will be named Thursday preceding the race.

However, they are only two of 11 stake winners whose trainers are considering taking a shot at this important Detroit race. Other victors from previous campaigning who have been nominated include:

Elias Brothers' Nutty Donut, Drymon and Greenslit's Double Delta, B. Ferrari's Dedicated To Sue, Budd Lepman's Fanveil Hall, W. A. Lofton's Miss Danalee, M. A. MacDonald Stable's Miss Creole, Ada Rice's Delta Lea, Mrs. R. F. Roberts' Lil's Bag, and R. Strugis' Prefer.

After this event, the three-year-old fillies will have a chance in the Rose Leaves Handicap, if they wish to challenge older mares at the DRC September 27, and again in the Millette November 1.

In their own division, however, Saturday's romp will go far toward determining the class which will merit consideration against older handicap stars at the meeting progresses.

Racing Secretary Norris Gwin has announced that nominations for the 21st running of the "Mile" will close Wednesday, September 10.

THEY SHALL NOT PASS!—Romulus' front five of (from left) Frank Nesbit, Jim Bird, Russ Reaume, Tom Romak and Tim Sypola seem to have that as their motto. Anchoring the Eagle's defensive wall, the five average close to 200 pounds. Last year they did a fine job and hope to repeat this season.

Michigan Golf Classic Opens

The Michigan Golf Classic opens this week on Wednesday, Sept. 3rd, with their Pro-Am event. The play-for-play field of 144 of the country's finest players begins on the fourth.

Forty-five new entries were received this past week bringing the total entries to 147. The P.G.A. advised that they should be prepared for a qualifying field of more than 200 for the Tuesday qualifying at Oakland Hills Country Club.

Wayne's Ron Aleks entered in the tourney.

Notable among the new entries are: Bob Murphy, Lee Elder, Bob Goalby, Larry Hinson, Dow Finsterwald and Mike Souchak.

Sports Meridan

It is not a happy occasion when the coach has to chew a boy out. It really hurts sometimes, but being from the old school of football, I feel that a good lecture from the ole' coach is still good medicine.

A coach develops certain feelings for his players. It is as though they are a part of your family.

Football is a tough sport. It is a demanding sport. It teaches self-discipline. I have heard it said, and I do believe that the football field is a great laboratory and on it a boy can learn teamwork, courage, and leadership.

Many boys try out for football and then drop by the wayside. This is a sad experience for a coach. It is sad because I feel that this sport is so much like life.

A boy will experience many failures but he must bounce back, try harder. If he quits on the field, I'm afraid he may acquire the habit.

Quitting is easy; fighting back and improving yourself shows character.

Some people knock football because of the dangers involved. Granted, some boys are injured. Sometimes an arm is broken, a leg or collarbone fractured. This is unfortunate. We all know the risk we take in riding in an automobile or even riding a bike.

The good points favoring football still outnumber the bad.

I thank God that I live in a country which allows our boys to have the opportunity to participate in sports.

I'm proud to live in a school district that sees fit to support a football team, and I am grateful to my boys who work so hard and give so much to a game that is so much like our American heritage.

Maurine Brockman Tops Women's Division Romulus' Kozarian Repeats As Wayne Tennis Champion

There were approximately fifty entries in the Wayne Open Tennis Tournament, held August 23, and August 24, 1969 at the Wayne Memorial High School tennis courts. The tournament was sponsored by the Wayne Department of Parks and Recreation.

In the Boys 18 & Under

Singles Division, four of the top boys advanced to the semi-finals. These four are: Andy Kozarian of Romulus, John Law from Wayne, Westland's Bob Miller, and Randy Deutschendorf of Cherry Hill.

Andy Kozarian of Romulus overcame a pulled muscle from Saturday and defeated John Law of Wayne on Sunday. His 1-6, 6-2, and 6-3 matches won him the title for the second consecutive year.

The Men's Doubles Category found college players from U. of M., Wayne State, Henry Ford, and Kalamazoo College competing for the trophies.

making it one of the most exciting events.

Taylor's Mike Kowal and Jim Bajor teamed up to defeat the Dearborn team of Tom Leyrer and Jack Gilbreath in three sets 6-4, 6-8, and 6-1, to become the Men's Double winners.

NOT TOO surprisingly, the winning doubles team of Mike Kowal and Jim Bajor were also the two finalists in the Men's Singles Division, as opponents rather than partners.

Kowal, who plays tennis for Wayne State University defeated Bajor, his junior doubles partner, in a close match to capture the championship.

In the Women's Singles Division, which was a little shy on participation, Wayne's Maurine Brockman overwhelmed her opponent, Aurelia Hudson, in sets of 6-2 and 6-0.

New Boston Race Driver Wins Dash At Speedway

Joy Fair, the Pontiac, Mich. garage owner, gained his tenth victory of the season at Flat Rock Speedway in the Aug. 23 ARCA Lake Model Stock Car action.

Joy took the lead from Dick Mitchell of Trenton, Mich. on the 7th lap and was pressed hard the entire distance by Fran Harden of Westland, Mich. and Joe Ruttman of Dearborn, both driving Chevilles, while Fair was in his 1965 Olds.

In Late Model preliminaries Iggy Toth, New Boston, Mich. won the dash, and heat race victories went to Fran Harden, Les Heikkila of Detroit, and Ed Richardville of Monroe, Mich. Fair won the pursuit race, and John Anderson captured the Consolation event.

In the Figure 8 division 69 cars were on hand and Dick "Lil Richard" Simmons, the defending World Figure 8 champ, from Plymouth, Mich. won the feature, but not without a real battle from Bob Rouston, the Detroit, Mich. carpenter.

The lead changed during the first 12 laps so frequently that it was hard to tell whether Simmons or Rouston would cross the finish line first, then Rouston was involved in a spectacular traffic jam at the intersection on the Figure 8 course and Simmons cruised to the checkered flag.

Second place was something different as Denny Pace, Larry Webb and Mel Murphy crossed the finish line 3 abreast with Pace gaining a much deserved second, Webb third and Murphy fourth.

How to Protect Family Against House Burglar

By M. Robert Beasley, No. 72422

at Jackson, Michigan. Their reasonings and methods of operation are presented to help protect you and your home.

According to FBI statistics, more than one burglary is committed in the United States every minute of each day and night. Thousands of people each year discover that this heinous crime doesn't always happen to the "other fellow," but can befall anyone. You can help reduce this menace, and simultaneously protect your family and valuables, by exercising a few simple precautions.

The first is to recognize that it can happen to you. Many people of modest means feel their homes are safe from burglars because they offer limited plunder. This basic misconception induces carelessness, which enables professional criminals to operate. Actually, the fact that you are an average citizen, with modest income and living habits, makes you a more desirable target than a wealthy person in a plush mansion. As one burglar of 30 years experience put it: "I'd rather hit two or three little 'scores' each night and be reasonably safe, than try a bigger place that is probably 'bugged,' (alarm system) and wind up with empty pockets and tangle with the law."

This is a common attitude among "cat men," as burglars are known in underworld parlance. They also point out the fact that loot obtained in prowling small homes and apartments, such as clothing, luggage, sporting equipment, cameras, television sets, is much easier disposed of than costly furs or jewelry.

The most common and easiest method of entry into private homes is through manipulation of spring-type snap locks. Skilled hands require only a thin piece of plastic - the kind found in any man's wallet. This is inserted between the casing and door, directly in line with the lock. The resilient plastic easily pushes the lock back, and the door is opened instantly, without a sound. Thieves specializing in snap locks require no special tools, an extra advantage since most states mete out heavy sentences for possession of burglar tools.

To stop this easy entry, replace spring-type snap locks with dead-bolt appliances, which require the turn of a key for locking. Such locks won't make your home invulnerable, but will discourage many burglars.

It is a curious fact that many home owners will install expensive multiple locks on the front door, leaving other doors with cheap locks, for which skeleton keys can be obtained at any hardware store. In doing so, the most vulnerable spots are left unprotected. Side and back doors, and basement doors and windows are favorite points of entrance, because there is less chance of being spotted by neighbors.

These avenues of entrance can be effectively protected through use of sliding barrel bolts on all service-entry doors, and cross bar arrangements or hasp locks on basement windows.

Doors having hinge pins on the outside are also open invitations to the experienced burglar. He merely has to slip out the hinge pins, and the entire door can be lifted out, even with a costly lock on the opposite side of the door. Check your hinges. If you find any like this on your outside doors, either reverse them or substitute safety hinges with pins that cannot be removed.

As shocking as it may sound, many burglaries are committed with the use of actual house keys. Families often have the dangerous habit of hiding a key for use by other persons, or in the case of loss. Keys cached under door mats, on transom ledges, in mail boxes, or behind shingles, are used every day for felonious entry. If you must have a spare key, leave it with a trusted neighbor.

Another common and frequently disastrous habit is having an address in your key case. This may bring back lost keys, but it can also allow a crook to make duplicates, return the keys, and later burglarize your home. If you lose your keys, it is far better to let them stay lost, than to advertise what doors they open.

Many people carry keys in overcoat pockets, frequently checking the garment in different public coat rooms. Some thieves have working arrangements with checkroom people to obtain such keys. Duplicates or wax impressions are made, and the keys are returned to your coat pocket. Armed with the address thoughtfully included in the case, the thief can enter your home whenever he desires. The same situation prevails on some parking lots, when you leave house keys in your car. A duplicate is made, your address obtained through the license number, and uninvited "company" will later call at your home. The best protection against this hazard, of course, is to keep your keys with you at all times.

There is a popular belief that most burglars don't carry weapons. Don't you believe it! Almost every burglar interviewed in writing this article considered his gun a necessary piece of equipment. "Whadda you expect me to do?" said one, "Go into a place 'naked' (unarmed) and have some joker corner me with a ball bat?"

What should you do if you wake in the middle of the night and hear the stealthy movements of a prowler? ABSOLUTELY NOTHING!

The experienced burglar at work is tense and alert to prevent detection. You are unprepared for the situation. Even if you have a gun handy, is your hand steady enough to shoot accurately? Are you in sufficient command of yourself to move without a sound? If you start shooting, are you positive the target isn't one of your family moving about? The answer to each question is probably NO.

If you jump out of bed, even with a pistol in your hand, you are still at a disadvantage. The prowler listening with acutely trained ears, will detect your first movement. Since he doesn't have to worry about who becomes his target, he may indiscriminately spray a lethal hail of bullets. Your best course is to lie quietly and do nothing. He'll take what he wants and silently fade into the night. While you may not have silverware at breakfast in the morning, you and your family will all be at the table.

Remember, a burglar at work is at an emotional pitch, probably hopped up on narcotics, and armed. He risks three dangers every time he breaks into a house; the police, prison and death. He'll avoid these at all costs - even if that price includes your life.

If you awake during the night and hear noise DOWNSTAIRS, and you and your family are UPSTAIRS, the situation is different. You are safely removed from physical harm, and have a weapon that all burglars fear - noise. Slam and lock your bedroom door, kick a chair against the wall, stomp the floor, turn on lights and call for help from the upstairs window. If you have a telephone extension in the bedroom, call police. The burglar will vacate your premises in a hurry. And it is a safe procedure - provided you are UPSTAIRS and the thief is DOWNSTAIRS.

Even if a burglary loss is uninsured, material losses can always be replaced. However, if you expose yourself to serious - or fatal - injury, all the valuables in the world are of little consequences.

Milliken Blasted On Welfare Issue

A delegation of Wayne County supervisors is "extremely disturbed" at its inability to pin down a date for a meeting with Gov. William G. Milliken to discuss the clothing needs of school on welfare, the governor has been informed by letter.

The letter was dispatched to the Governor Aug. 28 by N. Frank Cylkowski, supervisor from west side Detroit's 16th District and chairman of the seven-member special committee.

He warned that welfare mothers threatened to keep their children out of school if higher clothing allowances were not forthcoming—a tactic that could cost millions in state school aid money if prolonged beyond the fall school census.

The delegation had been trying to get a meeting commitment since Aug. 18 when the Board of Supervisors heard pleas from welfare mothers for higher clothing allowances for themselves and their children. The welfare program is operated by the Michigan Department of Social Services.

Cylkowski acted after being told by an aide to the Governor that Milliken would not be able to meet with the supervisors and a like number of Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) recipients until the week of Sept. 8 due to prior commitments, including the national governor's conferences.

Pointing out the State responsibility, the supervisors established a delegation to accompany a group of ADC mothers to Lansing to plea for liberalization of State regulations governing clothing allowances. The mothers complained that they now get only $11 per child twice a year.

Wayne County is required to contribute $10 million a year for welfare programs, and voluntarily finances additional grants to meet various family emergencies.

In his letter, Cylkowski told the governor that the supervisors' delegation "is extremely disturbed that you do not find it possible to meet on a subject - having such serious implications - until the week of Sept. 8."

He added: "As you are doubtless aware, statements have been made that children will be kept out of school beginning on Sept. 4 and that, depending on the length of time this occurs, State financial assistance to Wayne County Schools could be materially affected."

It has been estimated, Cylkowski said, that if all 60,000-odd school-age children on the ADC rolls in Wayne County were kept home beyond the State school census, school districts would stand to lose $18-$20 million in state aid.

FitzPatrick has asked State Attorney General Frank Kelley for a ruling on whether the request for higher clothing grants is an emergency need under State welfare laws and therefore an item which the State should pay.

A new herbicide application method based on an "injection blade" has been developed by Michigan State University crop scientists. Mounted on the seed planter, the new system puts a highly concentrated band of chemical beneath a layer of soil. With this method, weed control doesn't depend on rainfall, seed injury from burning can be eliminated and evaporation of volatile chemicals can be prevented.

Bridge the generation gap. Read "Between Parent & Teenager" beginning Sunday in the Free Press

"My father is a natural-born improver...his corrections are tattooed in my memory with needles of hate."

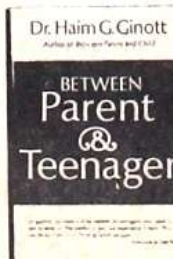

"I'm sorry son. It's your hair—but it's my guts. I can stand it after breakfast, but not before. So, why don't you have breakfast in your room?"

Not every youth has taken to long hair and granny glasses. But scarcely a home in the nation is untouched by the wounds of the parent-teenager struggle. The bitterness, the widening alienation is more of a problem today than ever before.

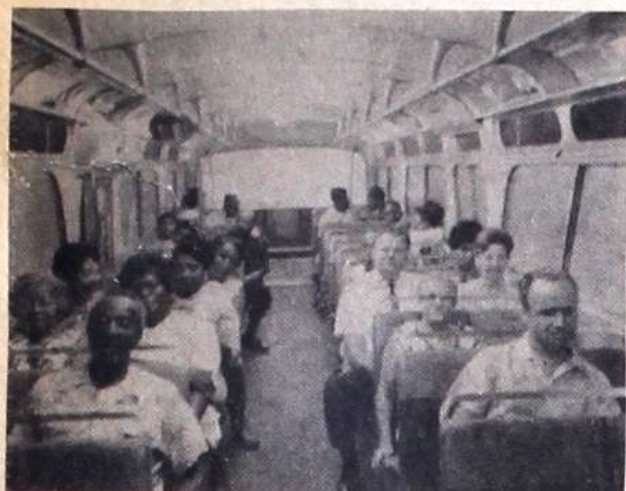

Dr. Haim Ginott, out of his many years of experience working with parents and teenagers, has written a new, easy-to-read — often humorous — book that will help you to bridge the widening generation gap.

"Between Parent & Teenager" promises to be an even bigger hit than his last classic, "Between Parent & Child," for months a run-away best-seller. Beginning Sunday, Sept. 7, you'll be able to read the first of 12 lively intimate, close-to-home—but above all, helpful—excerpts from this important new book exclusively in the Free Press. It's must reading for every parent who has teenager problems... and for every teenager who has parent problems.

START OF TOUR—Twenty six residents of Romulus Township participated in a recent tour of housing. Members of the township planning commission, urban renewal Department and other citizens' groups are shown aboard bus that transported them to various housing projects in Detroit and elsewhere. Romulus is presently in the midst of Urban Renewal Program and low-income housing planning.

Romulus Officials, Residents Tour Area Housing Projects

MICHIGAN CONSOLIDATED HOMES—shown above were inspected by a group of Romulus Township residents and officials. The firm is a subsidiary of the Michigan Consolidated Gas Company. The subsidiary purchased 15 acres of land at Wayne Road, south of Ecorse Road and plans to build approximately 210 units in the near future. Major Green and Thomas J. Coleman, members of the Wayne-Beverly Citizens District Council view units.

HOUSING INSPECTION—Members of Wayne-Beverly Citizens District Council (Urban Renewal) and Romulus official inspecting housing for low and moderate income families on a recent tour to adjacent areas. Pictured are Rev. Richard Bell, Harold L. Reiner, deputy assessor for Romulus (umbrella) Ron Downing of the Michigan Consolidated Homes, Inc., subsidiary of Mich. Consolidated Gas Co., Lester Hart and Peter Gray.

ROMULUS — Twenty Six residents of Romulus Township toured several areas of Detroit on Aug. 16 to get ideas of what is being done in the field of housing for low and moderate income families.

Representing Romulus Township was Harold L. Reiner, Deputy Assessor and his wife; Jack Barton, chairman of the planning commission; Mrs. Sadie Ward of the Housing Commission; George Wilhelm, Urban Renewal director and his wife.

Representing the Wayne Beverly Citizens District Council were Mrs. Dorothy Phenix, First vice-chairman; Mrs. Zeffie Beaman, recording secretary; T.J. Coleman, Oliver Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Gray, Mrs. Lois Hill, Mayor Green, Lester Hart, James McCain.

Others present were Mrs. Mary Gear, Mrs. Virgie Golden of Veteran's Wrecking Company, Mrs. Sarah Gilbert, Mrs. Amanda Haddon, Leonard Folmar and Mary Carter, Urban Renewal Assistants.

OF PARTICULAR interest to the township representatives were the townhouses shown by Ron Downing of the Michigan Consolidated Homes, Inc., a subsidiary of the Michigan Consolidated Gas Company. They have purchased 15 acres of land on Wayne Road, south of Ecorse Road, and plan to build approximately 210 units here in Romulus in the near future.

Their complexes contain units of from 1 to 3 bedrooms, and are built using conventional construction methods. Exteriors are full brick with aluminum siding for easy maintenance and upkeep.

The cost of construction averages to $18,000 per unit and will be leased to occupants on a year to year basis. Rents per month will range from $115 for a one bedroom unit to $155 for a three bedroom unit, amounts to include heat, water, fully equipped kitchen, full basement, exterior maintenance, and off street parking.

 VISITED several new townhouse complexes and two single family homes presently being rehabed through the combined efforts of various community groups and the Metropolitan Detroit Citizens Development Authority.

John Scott of MDCDA was the tour guide for the day. The group was shown Nagel Plaza, which was built by the Campbell Group.

Nagel Plaza is a non-profit housing project and is, quote, "A housing project incorporating many construction innovations to lower costs without sacrifice of esthetics, durability, comfort, safety and efficiency".

The construction of Nagel Plaza employs the wide use of concrete and related concrete products.

 IN ADDITION we toured other townhouses which use pre-manufactured units by the National Homes; Redman Industries; Pre-built Homes; and finally the Clairpointe built by Lebon Walker Homes, Inc.

The Clairpointe is a pre-manufactured home presently being built in Pennsylvania, but will soon be produced in Detroit. Of the rehabed homes visited, one of the ones on 17th Street, has since been sold, receiving wide coverage by the press and television.

A box lunch was furnished by Stoffers, compliments of the Michigan Consolidated Gas Company.

Program Announced

A special program in color on "America's Greatest Crippler-Arthritis," will be presented from 9-9:30 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 6 on WKBD-TV Channel 50.

The Arthritis Foundation will present the dramatic color film "One In Sixteen" with comments from Arthritis Foundation

President Dr. William S. Clark, interviewed by Barry Comferte, Arthritis Foundation Radio-TV Director.

Expert on Alcoholism Tells UAW, Firms How to Assist

"The time is past for trying to sweep alcoholism under the rug."

That is the message one of the nation's foremost authorities on alcoholism brought to Detroit labor-management leaders.

Dr. Thomas Plaut, assistant chief, National Center for the Prevention and Control of Alcoholism, Chevy Chase, Md., came to the city under the auspices of the Greater Detroit Council on Alcoholism (GDCA), a Torch Drive service.

HE CONFERRED with UAW officials at Solidarity House last Monday morning (Aug. 25) and in the afternoon met with representatives from major Detroit area industries in the Lourdes Building, Mt. Carmel Hospital.

"Alcoholism is an illness that can be helped," Dr. Plaut said, "and companies must develop policies that reflect this understanding and start training supervisory staffs to handle the problem."

In the past, he said, individuals and companies alike tended to condemn the alcoholic to a death sentence by ignoring his plight.

"He was viewed as a strange bird with a sickness no one could help," Dr. Plaut said.

"BUT TODAY there is increasing evidence great numbers respond to such various methods as drug treatment, psychology, group therapy and changes in living arrangements."

He urged leaders within labor-management ranks to work toward early detection and early treatment of the illness now labeled a major national health problem.

"From two to four percent of the work force suffers from alcoholism," he declared. "Their absenteeism, lowered efficiency and medical expenses cost industries $2 billion annually."

He directed companies and unions to join together in seeking "appropriate working relationships with available community resources."

DR. PLAUT was a research associate for the Cooperative Commission on the Study of Alcoholism established by the National Institute of Mental Health. In 1967 the commission completed a six-year study and published its report, "Alcohol Problems - A Report to the Nation."

In his present post at the National Center, Dr. Plaut works to modify public attitudes toward alcoholism by publicizing scientific knowledge through an expanded program of education.

His host for the visit was Verkey F. Watterson, community services assistant, UAW International, and GDCA board member and labor-management committee chairman.

Club Gets OK on Fire Hall Use

BELLEVILLE—Permission to use the Township Fire Hall, located at Fourth and Main Street, Belleville, filed by the Belleville Area Senior Citizens with the Van Buren Township Board has been approved.

In a letter to the Board, Richard Coffelt, club director, reported that the Senior Citizens wanted the use of the fire hall to conduct a "garage sale" on Friday and Saturday, Sept. 26 and 27.

He stated that the use of the hall last year had good results and added that the sale is one of the club's projects to "help ourselves to help others." The club is now in its fourth year of operation.

Who could think of refurnacing at a time like this?

Seems like a funny time to talk about replacing a furnace, huh? Actually, warm weather's the best time to make home repairs. Like replacing a cranky old heating system with modern electric heat.

And now's an especially good time to convert. Right now, your Edison-Approved Electric Heat Contractor will give you $100 for your old heating system when you change to electric heat.

Why electric heat? It's comfortable—really comfortable. No chill one moment nor blast of hot, dry air the next.

And operating cost is guaranteed. Call Edison for details, and some names of Approved Electric Heat Contractors.

So if your old furnace won't make it another winter, remember now's the best time to refurnace to modern electric heat.

Vehicle Check To Change

Michigan's vehicle check lane program will undergo modification in the next several months, bringing the spot inspection system closer to standards specified by the Federal Government.

Following a meeting of State Police officials and representatives of the National Highway Safety Bureau, Director Fredrick E. Davids indicated the vehicle inspection program operated by his department may have to be expanded to meet certain requirements.

Davids noted that a State Police budget request, pencilled out during recent appropriation hearings, would have allowed the addition of a task force providing necessary manpower for increased vehicle inspection activity. The proposed task force would have been assigned this task as well as road patrol while on stand-by for civil disorder duty.

IN THE meantime the Director said a three point program providing for evaluation, follow-up and expansion is being applied. State Police Traffic and Office of Highway Safety Planning divisions representatives said the evaluation phase would involve studies of the effects of inspection on the total driver-vehicle population in the state.

A follow up system of enforcement designed to assure indicated repairs are carried out is also being studied.

While State Police are presently staffed and equipped to check about two per cent of registered vehicles yearly, government standards call for a more concerted effort and a greater percentage of inspections.

A BUILT-IN penalty clause in the national Highway Safety Act could be applied for failure to meet government specifications. Highway construction funds may be withheld if standards are not met. According to Davids the alternative to modification and expansion is state-wide compulsory vehicle inspection.

Rezoning Petition Tabled

BELLEVILLE—A petition seeking a rezoning of an 85-acre parcel of land by the Van Buren Investment Company has been tabled by the Van Buren Township Board.

The rezoning request was deferred until the Township's Planning Commission consults with Parkins, Rogers and Associates, master plan advisors to Van Buren Township.

The firm wants to have the present zoning of single-family residential changed to commercial and multiple residential.

The 85-acre tract of land is located southwest of Haggerty Road and Ecorse Roads.

The Wayne County Planning Commission when reviewing the request advised that the proposed zoning was not consistent with the township's master plan.

earn money to further his education.

The car wash is being conducted at the Sandy's Robo Wash, 687 Huron River Drive. The junior class has expressed sincere thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Suliman for the donation of the use of the car wash for the fund-raising project.

Other programs for the benefit of Mills are underway.

Some banks pay you high interest on your savings. And make you pay it all back for checking.

Sad but true, but it can happen if you have $500 in savings in an ordinary bank, and you're checking there, too.

Figure it out: You spend an average of $25 a year on checking charges, just what your $500 in savings earns for you at 5%. Which nets you exactly nothing for your trouble.

But not with Commonwealth's 5% Golden Passbook.

We pay you the highest possible bank interest in Detroit and give you a free checking account. You pay no service charges, and the only balance you have to keep is enough to cover the checks you write.

That's like having an extra $500 earning interest. So if you have $500 in a Golden Passbook, you've actually got $1000 in earning power.

Yet your money is handy. You can withdraw your savings during the first ten days of any interest quarter. (Or with just 90 days' notice in between times.)

Switching your funds is easy. Just bring in your present passbook, certificates or other funds. We'll handle the rest.

After all, anyone who can save $500 or more these days deserves a free checking account. And that's what you get from the bank that pays you more than interest.

Pinter's Play, 'Dumbwaiter,' a Hit at Repertory

by ALAN KROKER
ANP Amusement Critic

A definitive presentation of Harold Pinter is being offered by the Detroit Repertory Theatre, currently presenting the one-act play, "The Dumbwaiter," in combination with underground films. Pinter never screams at you. He is the quiet voice, the gentle voice, but what is that undertone and is there something lurking in the shadows? The greatest menace to life is ordinary living, Pinter tells us.

Director Gunnar Lewis effectively brings this across in "Dumbwaiter." Two thugs have been summoned to a ramshackle basement to commit murder. They have been at it so long the routine is completely standardized. But there are certain disturbing intrusions like a dumbwaiter which periodically rumbles and delivers orders for fantastic menus. They theorize that there must have been a restaurant upstairs once but why the messages now? And they attempt to placate the dumbwaiter with some stale lunch they have brought. But Pinter has more than this in mind as his shuddering conclusion reveals.

W. Paul Unger and Eric Saunders effectively handle English dialects without being intrusive. They impose the ordinary upon the superordinary and bring out distinctive comb touches to relieve the tension. Detroit Rep. has offered some highly mixed bags over the years but this is certainly one of their best efforts.

ROD STEIGER AND CLAIRE BLOOM, are master craftsmen and, regardless of the product they're appearing in, you can expect skilled performances from them. The most perplexing thing about "3 into 2 Won't Go" is why it was ever filmed. It's about a thoroughly rotten young girl adept at taking a decaying marriage and applying the final touches to it and...Well, that's all it's about.

"3 into 2" has no great message to hand down to the ages. It's mildly entertaining but hardly apt to send the audiences rushing out of the theater to tell their friends. It offers a few insights into human personality but nothing really special. In fact the reason it was filmed at all was, well, you tell me. Rod Steiger is a traveling salesman who picks up a sexy young vixen with whom he spends the night. He even gets her a job at the inn where they stay. But they go back again and this is Steiger's undoing.

Steiger's marriage to Miss Bloom is withering through sheer mutual disinterest. The girl, sullenly played by Judy Geeson, insinuates herself into Steiger's household and with the judicious use of a few lies manages to twist the marriage apart and infect Steiger with an artificial passion for her that leaves him totally ludicrous. When the misery she was inflicted is completed, she leaves.

Regardless of the merits of "3 into 2," it is a sheer joy of watch Steiger and Miss Bloom at work. Ironically, of course, shortly after the completion of this picture the Steiger-Bloom marriage itself disintegrated.

IT USED TO BE that the potboiler was a simple film indeed. Oaters were all made on the back lot at Republic, and Main Street of Tombstone looked exactly the same as Main Street of Laramie or Durango and of course they were the same set. Nowadays, however, what once passed for potboilers has to be gussied up in gorgeous dress to prevent you from telling the "A" picture from the "B" picture.

But there is still an infallible way to tell: look at the plot.

A case in point is "The Chairman," which offers Gregory Peck, who ought to know better, as a scientist out to steal the Communist Chinese invention to end the world's food problems; the West suspects that the Reds will use their discovery to blackmail the starving nations. And so they install a radio transmitter in Peck's skull (no that isn't a typo, you read it right) and send him off to beard the Chairman, Comrade Mao. They don't tell him the bug is booby trapped and can also be used to blow his skull off. China welcomes him because they think he's the man to get a few wrinkles out of the discovery and he is granted an interview with Mao (this is called realism, folks) which provides a tempting moment for the spies back home who want to blow him up and Mao too.

Potboilers have been a staple of the movie industry for more than a half century and there's nothing wrong with them provided they are properly labeled. Thus, there's nothing really wrong with "The Chairman" except for the misleading advertising. The distributors would have you believe that "Chairman" really is something. It really isn't.

ONE OF THE YEAR'S most charming films is "Popi" which offers Alan Arkin, who can and does play anything successfully, as a Puerto Rican New Yorker trying to bring up two sons in the ghetto, breaking his back at three jobs simultaneously and not getting anywhere. When he realizes that, despite his efforts, the ghetto is destroying his motherless boys, he determines to find a better life for them.

And so he devises a scheme to make the boys appear to be refugees from Cuba, drilling them in a fictitious background, giving them lessons in rowing a boat and at last taking them to Florida where, despite their hysterical protests, he sets them adrift in a stolen boat. But this is only the beginning of his troubles as the boys are at first feared lost and later moved from peak to peak on the precarious brink of discovery.

"Popi" is filled with warm humor but it is never forced. Arkin's attempts to move around the hospital where the rescued boys are recovering verge on the hilarious as do many of his attempts to earn a living. But this at no time damages the moving relationship between Popi and his sons. "Popi" is a must.

Jeannie C. Riley Sings at Olympia

Jeannie C. Riley owes a lot to a song about a young mother who exposed a seemingly innocent Parent-Teacher Organization somewhere in the deep south.

She recorded the song, "Harper Valley P.T.A.," in the summer of 1968, and it became one of the biggest selling hits of that year.

Miss Riley, 21, will make her first Detroit appearance on Sunday, Sept. 28, at Olympia Stadium, when she headlines a "Country Music Spectacular." She will be joined by a lineup of eight other country singers including Jim Ed Brown, Bobby Bare, Billy Walker, Webb Pierce and Johnny Bush.

Like thousands of other hopefuls, she arrived in Nashville, Tenn., the country-singing capital of the United States two years ago. She began working small clubs while trying to get a chance to enter the coveted Nashville recording studios.

Her opportunity came on July 26, 1968, when she was signed by Plantation Records and did a session that included "Harper Valley P.T.A." It was released the following week and started on a rapid ascent that took it to the top of the record charts. Two months later, it had sold over 4,000,000 copies.

Last spring, the National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences presented Jeannie with their Grammy award for the Best Female Country Vocal Performance.

Since her initial hit, she has stayed on the country charts with songs like "Mr. Harper," "Widow Jones" and "The Rib."

Tickets for the Country Music Spectacular are $2.50, $3.50 and $4.50 and are available at all major J.L. Hudson stores and the Olympia box office.

YMCA to Hold Open House

The YMCA will hold an open house from 5 to 7:30 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 7, in its remodeled barn at 827 South Wayne Road, Westland.

The YMCA serves Wayne, Inkster, Garden City, Westland, Belleville, Romulus and Canton Township.

Mercy College Slates Concert Series Soon

Mercy College of Detroit will open its 1969-70 On-Campus Concert Series Sunday, Sept. 14, at 8 p.m. in McAuley Auditorium with Stecher and Horowitz, duo pianists, as the opening attraction.

The team of Melvin Stecher and Norman Horowitz now in its 18th season, already roundly acclaimed for its musicianship in international tours of Central and South America and Canada, has added Europe to its list of conquests. A European tour just concluded included appearances in London, Berlin, Munich, Copenhagen, Salzburg, Amsterdam, Stockholm and Brussels was regarded as most successful.

Other attractions in the series are:

Nov. 8 (Saturday)—Maria Alba and her Spanish Dancers.

Dec. 7—Mari Tsumura, Violinist, Leventritt Foundation Young Artist Series winner (1969).

Jan. 25—Joel Ebersole, lyric spinto tenor, chairman of the Music Department at Mercy College of Detroit.

March 15—The Villanova University Singers, an all-male singing group now in its 16th season, already famous for its consistent musicianship.

A change has been made in the On-Campus Concert Series. With a single exception all will be held in McAuley Auditorium on Sundays at 8 p.m. The exception is the Maria Alba Spanish Dancers which will be on Saturday.

The series will be open to the public with season tickets at $7.50 for adults, $3.75 for students. Single admissions are: $2 adults, $1 students.

Despite its location in Lake Superior, largest and coldest of the Great Lakes, more than 30 types of orchids grow in Isle Royale National Park, according to the Michigan Tourist Council. Michigan's Isle Royale National park shelters one of the largest moose herds and timberwolf packs remaining in the United States.

BEE-LIEVE IT OR NOT-- The 120th State Fair in Detroit provided many fun-and thrill-filled moments for Mrs. Ruth Webber, 5605 Merriman, Westland, and her son, Martin, 13. But their biggest moment had to be Gov. William Milliken's visit to their apiary display. The Webbers conducted a honey booth at the fair--and turned a nice profit, too.

Hans Conried to Star In Fisher's 'Spofford'

Hans Conried, longtime favorite of stage, screen, and television will star in the Fisher's forthcoming production of the comedy hit "Spofford" which begins a five-week run at the theatre on Monday, Sept. 8, following the current attraction, "Your Own Thing".

"Spofford" ran through the 1967-1968 season in New York, drawing enthusiastic reviews from the critics and audiences as "a wise, sly, witty and ingratiating exposure of life in suburbia". It is based on the popular novel "Reuben, Reuben" by Peter deVries. Celebrated director and producer Herman Shulkin adapted the story for the stage and directed this production.

Conried will be seen as a chicken rancher annoyed because his countryside is turning into a complex of golf courses and cocktail-guzzling suburbanites. The comedy tells how he adjusts to the city slickers and helps them to do a bit of adjusting to themselves. Conried is well remembered by TV audiences for his role of Uncle Tonooose on "The Danny Thomas Show", and he will be seen this season on two TV spectacles "Make Room for Grand-Daddy" and "Horton Hears a Who".

The production opens its second national tour here. Last year Conried headed a national company of the show and this year a tour of major cities has been booked, again starring Conried.

Seats are now on sale at the boxoffice for the engagement which runs thru Oct. 11. "Spofford" replaces the musical "Holiday" which was to be the second show of the new season. "Holiday" cancelled when the producers could not raise capital to produce this Cole Porter musical version of Phillip Barry's play.

Japanese Dancing Tops Lafayette Park Art Fair

The graceful art of Japanese classical dancing is one of the many highlights of the fifth annual Lafayette Park Art Fair, Saturday, Sept. 6, and Sun. Sept. 7.

Members of the junior and senior Japanese-American Citizens League (JACL) will perform at 6 p.m. daily during the fair -- which runs from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m. Saturday and to 8 p.m. Sunday in downtown Detroit's Lafayette Park Shopping Plaza and adjoining park, East Lafayette between Rivard and Orleans.

The fair's invitation-only roster at the 100-odd booths includes 200 professional artists from throughout Michigan, representatives of four Detroit galleries and a design studio, and Lafayette Park residents.

Participating will be the Rubiner Art Gallery, Arts Extended, Charles McGee's Gallery, Middle Earth, and the McNamara Design Studio.

Two portrait artists and one caricaturist will sketch passers-by while members of JACL will demonstrate how to make lanterns, balls, and other objects with Japan's centuries-old paper-folding craft, origami.

And there's more at the fair: six antique stalls, fresh flowers to buy and demonstrations of weaving, glass-blowing, and pottery techniques.

Children won't want to miss the frolics of Magical Mel the Magician on Saturday and the Harold Ramm puppeteers on Sunday-- each scheduled for 2:30 p.m. shows.

Fair-goers can ride the DSR's wild-colored "Modmobile" between downtown Detroit's flea market and Lafayette Park

Sunday from 1 to 7 p.m. Flea market boarding is at two locations: on Fort St. or Michigan Ave.

Spicy enchiladas and tacos from the Acapulco Restaurant as well as such American favorites from the Lafayette Orleans Restaurant as fried chicken and hot dogs will be sold.

Backgrounding the festivities will be the sounds of an old-fashioned calliope and strolling Mexican mariachi musicians.

Civil Air Patrol Seeks New Cadets

FUTURE IN AVIATION — The road to a fine future in the flying world is open to any teen-ager who wants a foothold in this fantastic field. More than ever today the aviation industry is scouring the nation for qualified personnel. Too few are to be found.

The ones who are finding good opportunities and compensation are the ones who were orientated in younger years with basic knowledge of aviation, both with operational and flying activities.

One of the finest youth programs anywhere in the world is right here in the United States. However, too few take advantage of it. The Civil Air Patrol is seeking new members to fill ranks of others who have graduated to good jobs in aviation, well acquainted with the facts and know-how of the future waiting for them.

Civil Air Patrol, the official auxiliary of the United States Air Force, has two roles assigned to it by Congress. One is to operate the CAP Cadet Program, the other is to carry out certain emergency services for the government, primarily search and rescue for missing airplanes and their passengers. While these are done by the senior, or adult members, cadets receive emergency training so they can assist in real operations, and so they may carry out such operations themselves when they have reached adulthood.

This training consists of communications, primarily radio operation, first aid, search and rescue operations, civil defense procedures, land navigation, map and compass reading, and survival. In the Wayne-Romulus Cadet Squadron, this training is usually carried out in the field. Cadets in fatigue uniform, supervised by their senior personnel, carry out search and rescue operations start to finish and include all the areas of knowledge they need for successful operations. As much as possible, Cadets fill the leadership and command positions and direct the mission themselves. The Squadron also holds weekend bivouacs for such training, with Cadets participating from Friday evening until Sunday afternoon. Periodic physical fitness tests in the Squadron insure that cadets are physically fit for their field operations.

The National Special Activities Program is a nationwide program open to top CAP cadets and offers them the opportunity to study specialized subjects mostly at USAF expense. Some cadets may go to the National CAP Cadet Leadership School in Reno, Nev. Others may study air traffic control at the Federal Aviation Agency School.

Still others may attend a flying encampment and receive flight training, jet orientation, and receive some flying time in a jet aircraft, or the Space Age orientation Course where they study guided missiles and rocketry. The favorite activity is the International Air Cadet Exchange, in which CAP cadets are sent to one of 25 foreign countries for a month-long tour. Cadets fly to and from these activities in USAF aircraft.

The Wayne-Romulus Squadron conducts a field trip program of its own. Only this spring cadets were taken on a week-long tour of Cape Kennedy, Fla., and the Air Force Museum at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base in Dayton, Ohio. Future tours by the Squadron are planned for Washington, D.C., West Point, New York, and the Air Force Academy in Colorado.

Membership in the Civil Air Patrol is open to any young man or woman between the ages of 13 and 17. There are many rewards for the CAP cadet. He or she will wear the uniform of the United States Air Force with distinctive Civil Air Patrol insignia.

As they progress through the program, cadets receive promotions to non-commissioned officer and finally commissioned officer ranks. In addition, distinctive ribbons named after prominent aviation heroes are awarded for cadet accomplishments. The fun and excitement of growing up with good companions and sound leadership is another reward of CAP membership. But by far the most important reward is the training received from the Civil Air Patrol, training which proves of value throughout life.

Teen-agers desiring more information on the Cadet program are invited to attend a meeting of the Wayne-Romulus Cadet Squadron any Wednesday. The unit meets at Romulus Junior High School, 11401 Olive Street in Romulus, between 7 and 9:30 p.m. There is no obligation to join, and it is possible to participate actively in several meetings before joining formally.

Teen-agers living in the Inkster area may find it more convenient to join the Cherry Hill Squadron of CAP. Information on this unit may be obtained by calling Captain Michael Donovan, 955 Sunningdale in Inkster, at CR8-8735. Further information on the Wayne-Romulus Squadron may be obtained by calling South Grove in Ypsilanti, at Major Alan Creighton, 1603 483-0454.

Cosgrove Charged With Lying About Background

WESTLAND--Dearborn Heights street administrator Patrick Cosgrove has been charged with perjury in a Wayne County Circuit Court room six years ago. Cosgrove is charged with lying about his engineering qualifications.

The charge comes only a few months after Cosgrove was acquitted of a charge brought against him in Westland District Court stating that he had practiced engineering without a license.

The Westland charge came on a complaint by Westland housewife Vivian Cline of 35760 Glenwood, who was reported to have been instrumental in bringing the new charge to the attention of the County Prosecutor's office.

Cosgrove is alleged to have told the Circuit Court six years ago that he was a civil engineer with 21 years experience and that he had attended the University of Michigan and Lawrence Institute of Technology.

In the Westland case last Marge, Cosgrove's attorney told the court that Cosgrove was not an engineer, but also claimed that Cosgrove was not practicing engineering as charged. Cosgrove was acquitted when Garden City Municipal Judge Richard Hammer decided that the case was not proven "beyond a reasonable doubt."

The Westland offense occurred after Cosgrove had been working in Westland representing the Tri-County Engineering Co., which was hired to do City work, after the resignation of the City Engineer. The City Council eventually requested that the administration sever all ties with Tri-County, and recently moved to have the possibility of suing Tri-County for past payment of services probed by City Attorney John Nellis.

For those who want a home that offers country living and lots of lawn in the Plymouth area, the opportunity is available.

Developers William Fehlig and Jerry Helmer announced this week that Wm. Fehlig

Real Estate, Plymouth, has 37 choice lots up for sale in the Homestead Acres Subdivision, located 3 1/2 miles west of Plymouth of Napier and North Territorial Roads, Salem Township, Washtenaw County.

Size of lots offered are 1 1/4 to 1 1/4 acres, with no less than 150 feet of frontage.

Residents in the subdivision will be able to send their youngsters to Plymouth schools. They will also be able to build a small barn or outbuilding on their lot and keep a horse. Blacktop roads have just been completed.

Fehlig and Helmer purchased the property in the spring of 1968. They pointed out that 85 percent of the subdivision was sold before completion.

Oldtimer Wins Top Fair Award

WESTLAND--Western Wayne County was well represented at the Old Timers Day at the State Fair. Besides the numerous area senior citizens who attended, one, Hugo Horst Schneidenbach of Avondale, Westland, received a Certificate of Merit for his senior citizens activities.

Schneidenbach was nominated for Outstanding Senior Citizen by Mrs. Sylvia Kozorsky, of the Westland Parks and Recreation staff, for his varied participation in senior activities. Though not named the Outstanding Senior, Schneidenbach was honored as one of the ten top seniors.

Schneidenbach, who is almost 80, believes in participating in all area activities, and his record of accomplishments bears this out. For the past four years, he has served as treasurer of the Happy Hour Club for senior citizens in Westland, and he is presently serving as president of the Golden Hour Club of Wayne. He has also been secretary of the Golden Hour Club.

In addition, Schneidenbach describes himself as a member who assists when needed in the Garden City Senior Citizen Club. He points out that this was the first Club he joined when he moved to this area six years ago.

Joining Schneidenbach on all of his outings is his wife who enjoys all the senior activities too. He is the father of three children, Margaret Linklater of Westland, Walter of Kalamazoo, and Lillian Major who lives in Illinois.

Schooled in Saxony, he went in 1907 to Vienna where he designed wall paper and did interior decorating. Coming to the United States in 1910 he designed embroidery for ladies' gowns and dresses working in Indianapolis.

Later he moved to Chicago where he designed and made embroidery for costumes used in stage productions and in movies. Following his retirement, he came to Westland.

Realty Homeric Broker Here

Harrison-Moore Realty has been named the member broker for Homeric, Inc., in Western Wayne.

Homeric, which is the oldest national homefinding service, assists hundreds of families each month through the company's offices in New York, Chicago, Los Angeles and New Canaan, Conn., and its network of almost 1000 top-flight member brokers from coast to coast, according to Maurice Decker, manager of Harrison-Moore Realty.

"Our affiliation with this established national service allows Harrison-Moore Realty to offer unique advantages to both home buyers and sellers. The specific housing needs and requirements of Homeric's prospective buyers from all over the country are determined before they come to Western Wayne. Therefore, each home seller can be sure that his property was selected from our listings because the Homeric prospect expressed an interest in that type of property. The service, for which there is no charge to the client, can also be invaluable to families moving from Western Wayne to an unfamiliar area," Decker emphasized.

"Homeric specializes in finding homes for executives who must relocate as a result of a company transfer or a new position. These people are qualified buyers who are seriously in the market for a home.

Bills Are Now Law

Two bills sponsored by State Representative Vincent Pettipren (D-37th District) will provide the laws needed for certification for school counselors in Michigan. The signing of these bills marks the end of a 19-year effort to procure this mandatory legislation.

These two companion bills, HB 2893 and HB 2894, were signed into law Aug. 11 by Governor William Milliken. Pettipren is a former teacher with the Wayne Community School District and a former instructor at Eastern Michigan University.

The certification will become effective July 1, 1971, following the approval of rules and regulations by the State Board of Education.
